

“The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace.”

Wisdom 3

We Remember and We Pray

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and all the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

Parish Office: Mon-Thurs 8:30am-3pm • Fri 8:30am-12pm

WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

All Souls' Day: A Day of Joy or a Day of Mourning?

By Father Frank Brown

A Question of Emotion

At first, it would seem that it must be one or the other, given that the two appear to be opposing emotions. But somehow, Catholics manage to take something dark and turn it into a party.

The Liturgical View

Liturgically, All Souls' Day being associated with the color black would point toward the obvious: that it's a day to remember, mourn, and pray for departed souls in purgatory.

The Cultural View

Culturally, however, it's a day of comfort, love, and joy! For example, in Mexico, people create private altars for their dead and decorate them with photographs, flowers, and candles. In Hungary, people keep the lights on in their homes throughout the night and leave food on the table in memory of their loved ones. In Guatemala, they hold the Giant Kites Festival and build and decorate colorful kites as large as 65 feet across that can take months to complete. In Peru, you share with a friend or relative a sweet bread that is baked into the shape of a child. In Poland, traveling home to family is somewhat of an obligation—much like Christmas and Easter.

Joy and Mourning Together

Joy and mourning are not necessarily opposites. View it in terms of how we understand our relationship to deceased loved ones. We recognize that they are no longer present with us, but we still visit their graves because deep down we still feel spiritually connected to them.

The Communion of Saints

Purgatory is not something outside of the Body of Christ. Physically alive or deceased, we are all still part of the Body of Christ, and just because someone dies does not mean they no longer exist. If that were the case, then we would only have reason to mourn and no reason to be joyful.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls)

Wis 3:1-9 | Rom 5:5-11 | Jn 6:37-40

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There's a place in every human heart that harbors the fear of rejection. This can affect our relationship with others as well as our relationship with God. In response, many of us develop coping strategies in an attempt to take control of our lives. When fear of rejection threatens our peace, return to today's Gospel. What does Jesus say? "I will not reject anyone who comes to me." Let's pause to read that line again: I will not reject anyone who comes to me. Allow that message to pierce your heart. Jesus will not reject you. Jesus will not fail you. He will not abandon you. In fact, he has prepared a place for you in his kingdom and is waiting for your response of love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today, we commemorate all the faithful departed on this sacred feast of All Souls Day. Yes, we mourn the loss of those whom we loved who have died. Even as we mourn, we cling to hope as a community of believers, trusting that God has kept his promise to grant them eternal life. Indeed, as our first reading reminds us, "the souls of the just are in the hands of God. ... They are in peace." In addition to the treasure of canonized saints the Church gives us to admire and emulate, many of us could write a list of "saints" who have touched us in our own lives - those "who have gone before us with the sign of faith" (Eucharistic Prayer I). Think of them today, now. Call to mind their virtue and how they loved those they encountered, including you. Then, let their witness propel you on your own journey of faith.

REFLECT

Though we often associate death with sorrow and grief, for the faithful Catholic, it is also the way we enter eternal life. Heaven is the hoped-for reward of all our prayers, works, sufferings, and enjoyments. As she lay dying, St. Thérèse of Lisieux said to her fellow sisters, "I am not dying; I am entering into life." Still, it is not uncommon to grapple with fear of our own death (or the death of our living loved ones). If you find yourself facing this fear, invite Jesus to gently reveal the source of your anxieties, and ask him to flood those places of your heart and mind with his light and hope. And remember: Jesus will never reject anyone who comes to him.

Anointing of the Sick

If you or someone you know is in danger of death from sickness or old age and wishes to receive the sacraments, please call our main number, 614-231-4509, and ask for a priest to be dispatched to your location.

If you call after hours, please use the same number and follow the prompts to reach a priest.
