THE MONTH OF AUGUST IS DEDICATED TO
THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Second Collection Today
The Church in Latin America

Thank you for your generosity!

Welcome to St. Catharine

Parish Office: Mon-Thurs 8:30am-3pm • Fri 8:30am-12pm

We're so glad to see you! God loves you, and He has a great plan for your life! If you are new to St. Catharine, we want to thank you for coming and we look forward to worshipping God in Word and in Sacrament together today. Please remember to mute your cell phones and to observe sacred silence in the Church. Restrooms are located in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need any assistance or have any questions, just find someone with a green lanyard. We hope to see you again!

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN... May we suggest...relax! God put the wiggle in children, so don't feel that you must suppress it in God's house, but we do have a large quieting room and video-feed in the Parish Hall Gallery available if you feel the need to step out during Mass. But please do come back! Thank you so much for making the effort to be here, and never stop bringing your family to Mass. It's worth it.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR CHURCH... The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our congregation is growing. Any noise that our little ones make during Mass is pleasing to God's ears. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Message from Brendan O'Rourke

Yes, my Nativity Scene is still up

I recently had my family over for some pizza when my brother noticed that I had my Nativity scene displayed and sarcastically asked (as only an older brother can do), "Is that normal to leave up all year?" Well, brother, (RIP Hulk Hogan) I don't know if it's normal, but I would say it's not very typical.

My response whenever someone notices my Nativity scene is typically the same: We display our Crucifixes on days other than Good Friday to serve as a reminder of this monumental event in the life of Jesus. And so I want to display my Nativity scene on days other than Christmas as a reminder to myself as well, for out of all the events from the life of Jesus the one that I most clearly connect to is the Incarnation and birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It never fails to render me absolutely speechless and to sit in awe of God's love for humanity. The eternal God who has always existed and never not existed, the One who made everything that is visible and invisible, and the One who holds all of that in existence at this very moment, took on human flesh and became man in the womb of Mary. He was born and lived a human life like ours, while remaining fully God. And He did not lord it over us or treat us as a tyrant would, or how the gods of the world religions did, for the Bible says, "For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin." (Heb 4:15)

The reality is that while we thought we were searching for God, He was the one who came looking for us. Through all of history humankind has looked for God, but as they saying goes, "Every religion is a result of man's search for God. Christianity alone is the result of God's search for man."

This is also why I love that we've started praying the Angelus before Sunday Mass. This serves as another reminder that the Word became Flesh. Traditionally the Angelus is prayed at 6:00am, 12:00pm noon, and 6:00pm, and so you should consider incorporating one of those times into your day. It's a simple way to pause and remember amidst the work of our day that God became a man and made His dwelling with the human race.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ecc1 1:2; 2:21-23 | Col 3:1-5, 9-11 | Lk 12:13-21

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A few years ago, I heard this witty but thought-provoking phrase: "You never see a U-Haul attached to a hearse" – a reminder that we don't get to take our physical belongings with us when we die. This phrase came to mind as I read today's Gospel. Jesus offers us a parable about the perils of placing our ultimate hope in amassing possessions. In our own lives, we might be challenged or inspired by the quiet example of people around us who demonstrate that material things aren't what matter most. From individuals who lose their possessions but express gratitude for their physical safety to the child who hears about others in need and gathers up items from their own room to share, we glean gentle reminders that in the end, stuff is just stuff. Pondering this, what we're left with is an invitation from Jesus to look inward: Where are our hearts in relation to our material possessions? Do we cling to them tightly, or do we hold them lightly? What does it mean to be "rich in what matters to God"?

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The antidote to our disordered attachment to material things is to cultivate Gospel simplicity. In sending his disciples out to spread the Gospel, Jesus often instructed them to "pack light": "Take nothing for the journey, neither walking stick, nor sack, nor food, nor money ..." Jesus told his disciples (Lk 9:3). Instead, they were to go into the surrounding villages and rely on the hospitality of those they encountered to provide for all their needs. By carrying nothing with them, they learned to rely on God's providence and to intentionally reach out to others from a place of vulnerability and humility, both necessary in sharing the Gospel. While we aren't necessarily called to be itinerant preachers as the disciples were, we can take up Jesus' call to "pack light" as we strive to share the Gospel with others in our daily lives.

REFLECT

What can we learn from the disciples about overcoming the temptation to think that we are self-sufficient, as if sharing the Gospel depends entirely on us, rather than his grace? How might we adopt a simpler lifestyle, so that others see in us a living witness to the fact that our hope is not here in this world, but in the life to come? Reflect about how to live Gospel simplicity more intentionally in your life this week, and what that might offer for your efforts to share the Gospel with others.

PASTORAL PLANNING SURVEY

Bishop Fernandes has a desire to hear from as many of the Christian Faithful in the Diocese of Columbus about their perspective on his four priorities of pastoral concern:

VOCATIONS

EVANGELIZATION

CATHOLIC EDUCATION AND FORMATION

SOCIAL
OUTREACH
