Respect Life Month: Week 2 Walking with Moms in Need

See pg. 2 to learn about the organizations and individuals who walk with the courageous mothers and families who have chosen life. We celebrate them and thank God for their work this week!

Being pro life means walking with moms in need. Especially when they make the courageous decision to choose life!

WOMEN'S CARE CENTER
COLUMBUS, OHIO

Women's Care Center provides free, confidential counseling, parenting classes, and support and education for pregnant women. Free pregnancy testing and ultrasounds help determine the status of your pregnancy and dates (prenatal medical care and abortions not provided). WCC also provides almost anything a new mother might need: cribs, clothes, carseats, etc., and a loving and supporting community of expectant and current moms.

Pregnancy Decision Health Centers

Pregnancy Decision Health Centers (PDHC) serves women and families in the central Ohio community during and after pregnancy. All services at PDHC are confidential, free and provided by highly qualified professionals. PDHC offers pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, options information, parenting classes, links to community resources and post-abortion recovery help.

PDHC is here for you with free pregnancy tests, prenatal vitamins, pregnancy & parenting classes, clothes, diapers, car seats and more. Sometimes all you need is someone to listen, and sometimes you need answers to your questions. Whatever is on your mind, our team is on the other end of the line, waiting to be your support system, day or night.

Last year alone 2,647 babies were born after visiting the Women's Care Center. Our mission is to help pregnant women from our communities choose life for their babies, have healthier pregnancies, become better parents and take first steps to self-sufficiency. Help celebrate RESPECT LIFE MONTH by donating to The Women's Care Center book drive. Our goal is to give each client a children's book to take home with them after each visit. Did you know that more than 60% of low income children have no children's books at home to read? Help support literacy by donating a new or gently used book!

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kgs 5:14-17 | 2 Tim 2:8-13 | Lk 17:11-19

Written by
FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

After his healing in the Jordan river, Naaman returns to Elisha. It's clear from their ensuing conversation that his miraculous healing had led to him recognizing the God of Israel as the one who had healed him. In thanksgiving, he desires to offer sacrifice, and pledges that he "will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except the Lord." In the Gospel, we see the Samaritan returning to Jesus after his healing, falling at the Lord's feet and "glorifying God in a loud voice." It's clear from both Scriptures that when we recognize what God has done for us, our first response is to worship. That's why our central act of worship as a Christian community is called Eucharist - from the Greek word for thanksgiving. When we come to worship God, what is it that we're grateful for? If gratitude is the heart of worship, it's a fruitful practice to intentionally spend some time considering God's providence in our lives over the past week so we come to the liturgy prepared to offer thanks.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Something that has always struck me about today's Gospel is that Jesus heals all ten of the lepers, not only the one who returned to offer thanks. While we, as humans, can be tempted to withhold love when we know it will not be acknowledged or appreciated, Jesus heals all ten. God is good to us, even when we're ungrateful. As Paul says, "If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself." God can do only one thing: love. How powerful would it be if we worked to imitate the kind of gratuitous love we see in today's Gospel? Think about opportunities to practice this kind of love. What a witness this would be to the world if we were to imitate God's way of loving. As the Persian poet Hafiz wrote: "Even after all this time, the sun never says to the earth, 'You owe me.' Look what happens with a love like that. It lights the whole sky."

REFLECT

Take some time before Mass each Sunday to do an examine-style prayer, reflecting on where you've seen God's action in your life during the week. How has God provided for your needs? How has God accompanied you through challenges? How has the Spirit of God brought consolation and strength? Make a list of all the places you've experienced God's presence and grace and prepare to offer thanks to God for these gifts at Mass.

Parish Office: Mon-Thurs 8:30am-3pm • Fri 8:30am-12pm

We're so glad to see you! God loves you, and He has a great plan for your life! If you are new to St. Catharine, we want to thank you for coming and we look forward to worshipping God in Word and in Sacrament together today. Please remember to mute your cell phones and to observe sacred silence in the Church. Restrooms are located in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need any assistance or have any questions, just find someone with a green lanyard. We hope to see you again!

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN... May we suggest...relax! God put the wiggle in children, so don't feel that you must suppress it in God's house, but we do have a large quieting room and video-feed in the Parish Hall Gallery available if you feel the need to step out during Mass. But please do come back! Thank you so much for making the effort to be here, and never stop bringing your family to Mass. It's worth it.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR CHURCH... The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our congregation is growing. Any noise that our little ones make during Mass is pleasing to God's ears. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Called, Healed, and Grateful

By Anthony Whalen

I am grateful for the opportunity to return to St. Catharine and to spend this next year with you all for my pastoral assignment.
Currently, I am a fourth-year theologian at the Josephinum and will, God willing, be Ordained a Transitional Deacon on March 14, 2026, for the Diocese of Columbus.

Originally from Columbus, I grew up at St. Leo's Church and moved to Texas when I was 12 years old. I am a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and worked as a licensed funeral director/mortician at a Texas funeral home before serving as a government civilian at Arlington National Cemetery and as Director of Navy Cemeteries at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. I entered the seminary for the Archdiocese of Baltimore before transferring back home to Columbus in June 2023.

In today's Gospel we hear about Jesus continuing His journey to Jerusalem and healing the 10 lepers, only one of which gave thanks to God for his healing. Like the one leper who returned to Jesus, we must always remember that our faith is a gift from God and should not be taken lightly. All of us are on a journey of faith and it takes us in many different places. There are many miracles that take place in our lives, from the smallest, that may seem insignificant to others, to even those that are truly miraculous.

Every day I give thanks to God, because I received a life-saving kidney transplant almost 13 years ago. Without this healing in my life, I would not be here today to be able to minister to the faithful of Columbus.

God has a plan for each of our lives. As St. Paul says in his Letter to Timothy, "If we persevere we shall also reign with him." Let us persevere on our journey so that we may give glory to God and come at last to eternal life with Him.
