The Mass

✚ "Do This in Remembrance of Me" ✚ A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 9: The Forms of the Penitential Act

As we mentioned last time, the Penitential Act has three different forms. Why are there three? For starters, each of these three prayers have been present in liturgical celebrations since the early days of the Church. Although they are similar in that they each acknowledge the truth about God (he is merciful) and us (we need mercy), they each do so in a different way.

Form A, the Confiteor, is hopefully a familiar prayer beginning with the words: "I confess to Almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters..." This prayer helps us to express sorrow for faults we have committed in word and in action. We humbly acknowledge that we have done wrong and also that we have sometimes failed to do good. Then, recognizing that we all need help, we ask the intercession of our Blessed Mother, all the other saints, and our brothers and sisters around us. In many ways, this is a great prayer for reminding us that we are all in the Christian life together.

Within the text of the Roman Missal, we are instructed to strike the breast during the words "through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault" (corresponding to the three "mea culpa" phrases of the Latin version). Throughout the Bible, striking the breast is a gesture of humility and sorrow for sins. Why three times? As Edward Sri indicates, the threefold repetition of fault "more fully expresses sorrow over our sins. [...] This line in the liturgy helps us recognize that sinning against God is no light matter. We must take responsibility for whatever wrong we have done, or the good that we should have done but failed to do." Sri observes, "The Confiteor also challenges us to consider seriously four areas in which we may have fallen into sin: 'In my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do.' These four points serve as an excellent examination of conscience" (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 33, 35).

Form A can be replaced by either Forms B or C, both of which take their inspiration from the Book of Psalms (Psalm 51, for example). Form B is less frequently practiced and thus not as well-known. The presider prays, "Have mercy on us, O Lord," and the people respond, "For we have sinned against you." The presider continues, "Show us, O Lord, your mercy," and the people again respond, "And grant us your salvation." This form, the ending of which recalls Psalm 85:8, acknowledges that we have sinned and asks for the Lord's love and mercy.

For Form C, the Missal provides eight suggestions for use in the United States. Each of these involves the repetition of the words: "Lord have mercy... Christ have mercy... Lord have mercy." Each verse of this form begins with a statement of acknowledgement about Jesus, called a trope, usually about his mission (e.g., "you came to call sinners") or his person (e.g., "you are Mighty God and Prince of Peace"). These short verses help remind us who Jesus is and what he does for us. Why does the Church offer so many different sets of these prayers? Because Jesus is so wonderful! Even these 24 statements can't express everything about our loving Savior. Imagine how many different verses would be possible if we wanted to include every aspect of our Savior's love for us!

As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal says, "After the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, eleison (Lord, have mercy), is always begun, unless it has already been part of the Penitential Act" (GIRM, no. 52). Regarding the Kyrie, Edward Sri notes, "This three-fold plea for God's mercy fittingly flows after the three-fold admission of one's sin in the previous prayer, the Confiteor." Sri goes on to say, "While the Kyrie is primarily an expression of repentance, it also can be seen as a petition, a prayer representing the cry of God's people for assistance in their lives" (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 36, 39). All this talk about the Lord's mercy makes me feel very loved and hopeful for the graces to come in the rest of the Mass!

For Reflection:

1. Pray Psalm 85, noting the plea: "grant us your salvation" (v. 8). Seek and find encouragement in the promises the Lord speaks to his people in this psalm.
2. Practice lectio divina with Luke 18:9-14. Imagine yourself as the Pharisee taking stock of his good qualities. In what do you boast or take pride? Imagine yourself as the penitent tax collector, who strikes his breast and asks for mercy. Where do you need the Lord's mercy in your life at this time?

DO YOU HAVE A HEART FOR OTHERS?

Our parish Bereavement Ministry is a beautiful Corporal work of Mercy, accompanying those who have lost a loved one in what is often one of the most difficult times of their lives.

Can you help be a part of this?

We serve a luncheon after the funeral where family and friends can gather in love and support. This is an important time for families and is so appreciated.

We need volunteers to provide a simple side dish, salad or dessert to go along with the meal. We also need volunteers to help set up and serve the meal. Can you help by either providing a dish or serving?

Interested?

A NOTE ON PARISH MEMBERSHIP AND THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING REGISTERED

The word parish comes to us from the Jews and references a particular group of pilgrim people. The Church now uses it to denote a particular church community in a diocese, on pilgrimage to the Heavenly Jerusalem. This local parish community is under the care of a pastor who is under the authority of the local bishop. This provides for the mission of the Church - the care and sanctification of the faithful at the parish church and the church's outreach of evangelization and works of mercy in the local area.

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or have been worshipping with us for a while, but haven't registered in the parish, please do so soon. Additionally, sometime after a young adult turns 18 and has stability in this (or another) community, he/she should register in the local parish church.

Parish Registration is not a passive process. You may be surprised to learn that if you were married here, if your child attends St. Catharine School, or if you grew up at St. Catharine, for example, you are not automatically registered once you become an adult.

Why should you register at St. Catharine or another Catholic Parish?

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community
- It is a commitment to practice your faith
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to better minister to you. This is especially important during a time of sacramental preparation for a child, a time of engagement toward preparing for matrimony, or a pastoral crisis of an illness or death.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you with timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number!
- Accurate Census numbers can help aid local parish care and programs within the diocese.
