REMEMBER AND HONOR

Welcome to St. Catharine

www.stcatharine.com
info@stcatharine • 614-231-4509

WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The Solemnity of Pentecost is about the gift of the Spirit in our lives. St. Paul reminds us that despite the variety of gifts we have received, we are one Body. To make sense of this, consider that on a human level, some of us are introverts, while others are extroverts. Each personality type has particular gifts and struggles. Sometimes, our differing personality types can grate on each other, causing tension. And yet, how often do others who are our “opposites” remind us of truths we often forget? (Speaking as an extrovert, I need introverts to remind me that you can often learn more from quiet listening than talking out loud.) So, too, with spiritual gifts! As we consider the ways God has gifted each of us, let us remember that the differences between us have a specific purpose: to equip all of us to grow and experience the fullness of life in Christ.

GO EVANGELIZE

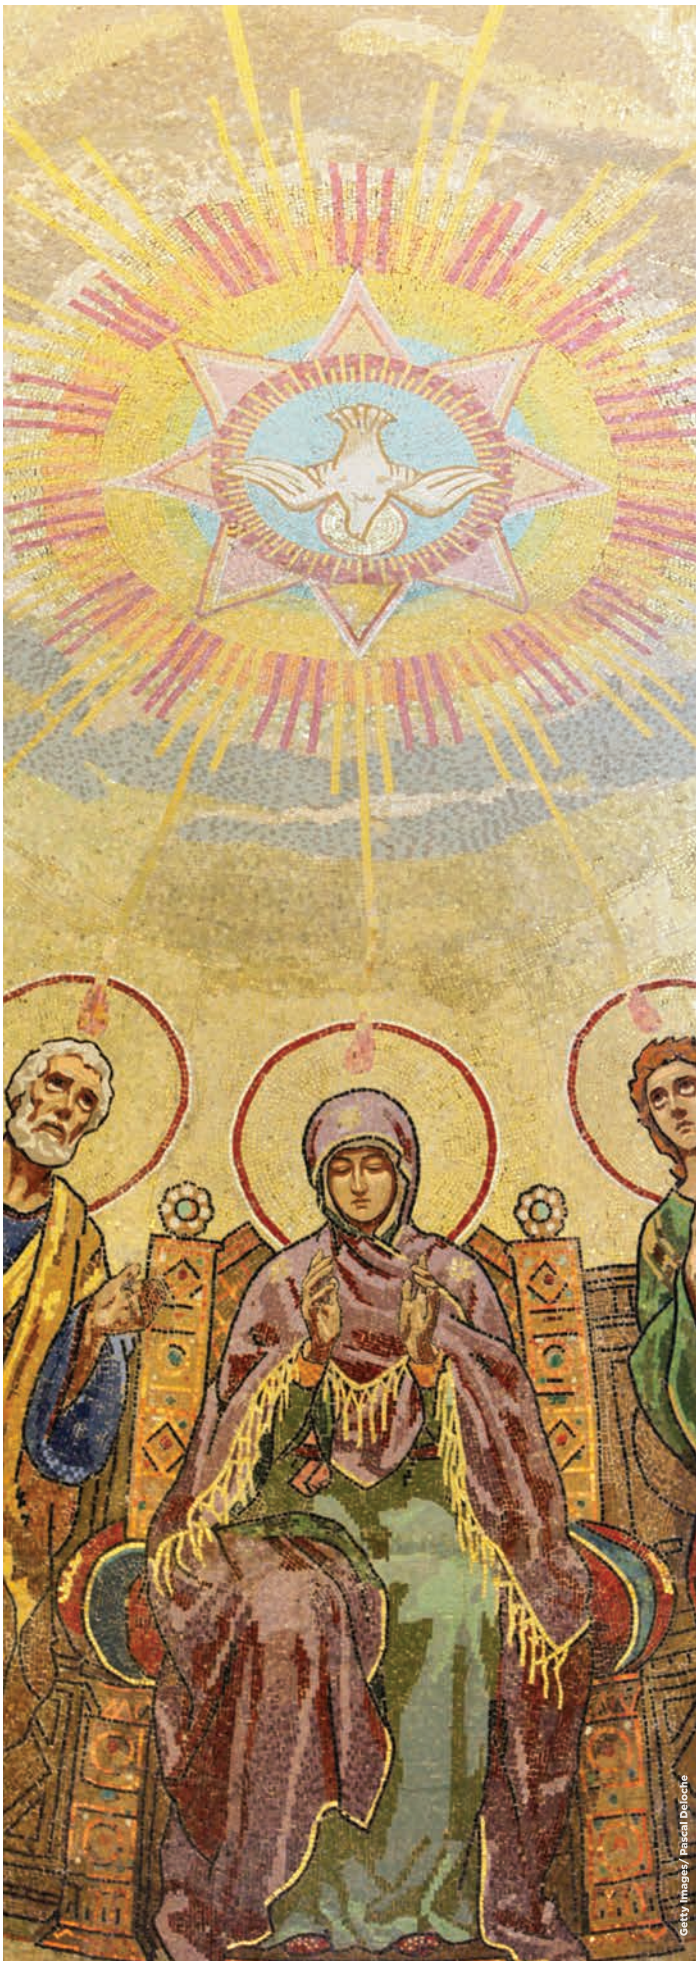

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In our first reading, we see that the Holy Spirit enables the disciples to speak in languages they did not know. While they were given an extraordinary spiritual gift to do so, today’s missionaries serving in foreign lands must learn the local language to effectively minister among the people they serve. No matter where we find ourselves, perhaps we, too, can learn a new “language,” or find new ways to live our faith and share the Gospel. Effective evangelization happens when we can look to the “signs of the times” and propose, “in language intelligible to each generation,” that Jesus Christ is the answer to the “perennial questions” which arise in each human heart.

INVITATION

The word Catholic comes from a Greek word meaning, “according to the whole” or “universal.” As we see in today’s first reading, from the beginning of our Church, the Spirit’s desire was to gather people of every nation, tribe, and tongue into the one Body of the Church. The Catholic Church is a global communion, consisting of the Latin Church and 23 Eastern Churches that worship according to their particular rite, customs, and language. Each of these Churches has unique spiritual gifts that enrich the wider Church. Plan to visit another Catholic Church in your area that worships in a different language or rite than your own to experience the manifold gifts of the Spirit that exist in every place where the Church is.

New Seasons, New Mission

By Deacon Chris Reis

Friends, you can feel it... It's a time of transition! Graduations, commencements, new marriages, ordinations, final vows, the change of seasons — new life — spring is turning into summer...

The Ascension of the Lord into Heaven, which we just celebrated, marks the transition between the earthly Jesus of history and the enduring presence of the Christ of faith. We exalt Jesus, risen and ascended to the Father. Transitions were difficult for the apostles, and they are for us as well. It was hard for those on earth whose lives had been forever changed because they encountered Him, and now He was going away from them. When He ascended, Jesus told those who wanted to hold onto Him that they were not being abandoned — the Holy Spirit was promised.

We celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit on this great feast day of Pentecost. We pray that the Spirit stir up in our hearts the gifts we received at Baptism and Confirmation. We remember the words of Jesus when He ascended, giving the Great Commission to go and make disciples — to share this amazing faith of ours!

At our 11:00 Mass, we enjoy our traditional rose petal drop, remembering the descent of the Holy Spirit with tongues of fire. We pray that the Spirit open us to the gifts we need for mission. The challenge for us is to call on the Holy Spirit to help us discern God's call in our lives. Like the apostles, we are sent into the world on fire with love for souls!

Speaking of transitions... As we transition from the end of the school year into the summer season, we once again kick off with our annual parish festival. Msgr. David Sorohan began the Funfest 34 years ago. His vision was that it become a neighborhood family reunion to connect, celebrate God's marvelous deeds in our lives, and share this with all those in the community. It has indeed become an anticipated gathering place for the whole community and a perfect opportunity for us to welcome people to the St. Catharine community. Father Bob is even bringing his mom from England!

Now is the time to go and proclaim God's marvelous deeds and invite others into a relationship with Christ! We all have family members, friends, neighbors, co-workers, and many others in our lives who are so hungry!

Veni Sancte Spiritus!
