

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Sunday, June 19th

Solemn Eucharistic Procession
Following 11:00am Mass

Hi, I'm Christiana Lee,
the new Youth Minister!

Favorite Colors

About me

I was born and raised in Steubenville, OH and am the fourth of five kids. I was homeschooled and grew up with a deep love of learning, especially about the faith and the lives of the saints. I am an artist and I love using my creativity to capture the beauty around me. I enjoy all things thrifting, gardening, coffee, and the outdoors—and Jesus, of course! I also really love dogs and hamsters.

I received my Bachelors in Theology from Franciscan University, graduating in May 2020, and then was a missionary with Damascus Catholic Mission Campus for their two-year missionary program! And that brings us here.

I can't wait to see all the ways that the Lord is going to move in this parish and I look forward to getting to know each and every one of you and your families!

I am so excited to be a part of this Church family! The Lord has placed a deep love of His people, especially the youth, in my heart and has given me a hunger to see people come alive in Him. I am so honored to be able to serve your families as we all walk closer and closer to Jesus.

Are you registered at St. Catharine Church?
What are you waiting for?

A NOTE ON PARISH MEMBERSHIP AND THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING REGISTERED

The word parish comes to us from the Jews and references a particular group of pilgrim people. The Church now uses it to denote a particular church community in a diocese, on pilgrimage to the Heavenly Jerusalem. This local parish community is under the care of a pastor who is under the authority of the local bishop. This provides for the mission of the Church - the care and sanctification of the faithful at the parish church and the church's outreach of evangelization and works of mercy in the local area.

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or have been worshipping with us for a while, but haven't registered in the parish, please do so soon. Additionally, sometime after a young adult turns 18 and has stability in this (or another) community, he/she should register in the local parish church.

Parish Registration is not a passive process. You may be surprised to learn that if you were married here, if your child attends St. Catharine School, or if you grew up at St. Catharine, for example, you are not automatically registered once you become an adult.

Why should you register at St. Catharine or another Catholic Parish?

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community
- It is a commitment to practice your faith
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to better minister to you. This is especially important during a time of sacramental preparation for a child, a time of engagement toward preparing for matrimony, or a pastoral crisis of an illness or death.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you with timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number!
- Accurate Census numbers can help aid local parish care and programs within the diocese.

Real Presence
Real Future

What drives parish vitality?

by Dan Cellucci
CEO, Catholic Leadership Institute

The intersection between evangelization and structure

As the collection of feedback this Spring for Real Presence, Real Future continues, it might feel like a longtime since the process commenced in earnest a year ago and parishioners throughout the Diocese of Columbus participated in an initial survey entitled the Disciple Maker Index (DMI).

The DMI is a national survey tool designed and deployed by the Catholic Leadership Institute that looks at two things: first, where are parishioners in their individual journey of faith and secondly, how is the parish supporting that journey. Over 21,000 Catholics from Central Ohio participated in 2021, and their feedback aligned with the feedback of now nearly 500,000 nationwide from over 2,100 parishes in over 45 dioceses.

Among the many insights that emerged and are helping to shape the evangelization plans developed for the future of diocese (check them out here!), the insights also provide an important backdrop for the important discernment around structural realignment that is currently underway. Here are three key points that connect the evangelization needs with the structural recommendations being considered:

Pastors matter. A lot.

Data from the Disciple Maker Index nationally, and locally in Columbus would point to the fact that a parishioner is 11x more likely to recommend their parish to someone else, if they are also likely to recommend their pastor. While we may only interact with our pastors once on the weekend or at daily mass, the reality is the life of a priest is full – not just with celebrating the Eucharist, but additionally the other sacramental responsibilities which are both planned (weddings, baptisms) but also the unplanned (anointing a dying person in the middle of the night, funerals, etc). In addition to this, we know they are also ultimately responsible for facilities, finances, staff, and possibly a school. Research shows that the ability for a priest to be present with his people, in the large but actually more importantly in the small moments has a direct and exponential effect on the community's growth. While Catholics in Columbus love their priests (74% strongly agree or agree that they would recommend their pastor) we know we just don't have enough. National research would suggest that the more long-term multi-parish pastoring that is required of a priest, his effectiveness to maintain that presence diminishes with every additional assignment, as it would for anyone trying to serve more than one organization, one community, or one family. Thus the importance of thinking about our parish footprint more intentionally.

Evangelization takes time and people.

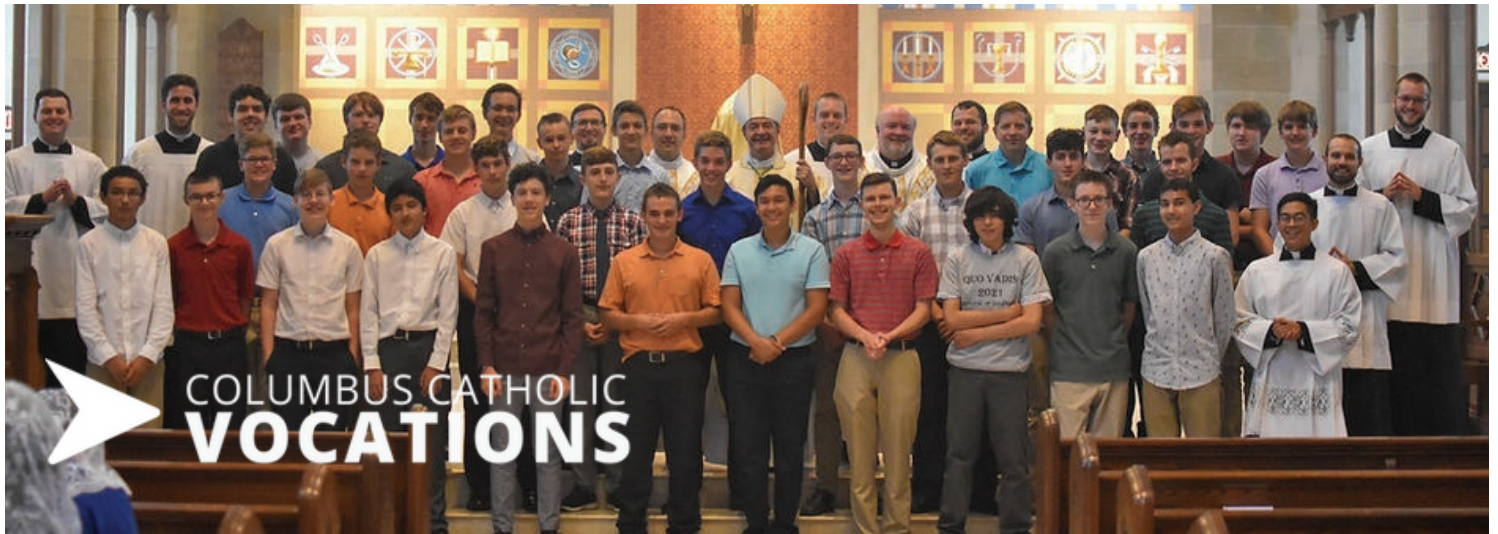

Research about evangelization including the Disciple Maker Index would suggest that a spirit of welcome and effective, ongoing discipleship formation are two big drivers in a parishioner's indication as to if the parish is helping them grow spiritually. While Father is important, he can't and shouldn't do all of this himself. This is precisely the baptismal call of the laity. However, most lifelong Catholics would also confess they rarely or never share about their faith with family and friends (35% never and 33% maybe once or twice a year in Columbus). Trained professional staff and/or well-formed missionaries are essential to have on the evangelization front lines. While there are over 70 million Catholics in the United States, only .04% would say that "they have been formed to form others" and feel confident and competent to do this important ministry. The ability to fund these types of staff roles and/or have a role that could coordinate well trained volunteers is beyond the reach of many of the diocese's parishes. While many parishes have funds that "get them by," evangelization will take some risks and investments to thrive not only survive.

The Digital Real Presence.

One of the last drivers indicated in the national research and among the opportunity areas in the diocese, is the "making information about the parish easy to find" through different forms of communication that are constantly evolving. While we can expect Father to be an expert on theology, it might be a little unfair to expect him to have the time and knowledge to leverage TikTok. Yet, with a primary concern among Columbus Catholics being outreach to young people, it is imperative that the Church is present where they are. Since the commencement of Real Presence, Real Future, the Diocese of Columbus has made tremendous investments in this capability but strong partnerships with parishes will make this work reach even farther. Again, here a more collaborative structure among parishes in each area, drawing on a larger pool of talented parishioners, might be able to help Columbus move from below the national average on this important indicator, and more importantly draw in young Catholics who are desperate for real presence and real relationship.

Change is never easy, but we know that constant conversion is what we are called to as Catholics. There are never any guarantees other than the promise of Christ. There are however, really encouraging indicators from the Disciple Maker Index and other efforts around the diocese, that we can help create more fertile conditions for people to hear and be open to that great promise.

Prayer. Discernment. Brotherhood.

Quo Vadis offers the structure of Holy Mass, the Liturgy of the Hours, Eucharistic Adoration, time for personal reflection and interaction with priests and seminarians, as well as the fun of activities, sports and fellowship. There will also be a closing Mass with the attendees and their families.

Ultimately, we hope to equip you with the tools and opportunity to discern God's will in your life.

Procession for Life

Saturday, June 25th

Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

With the possible overturning of Roe v. Wade in the Supreme Court by the end of June, a Eucharistic procession and Rosary outside central Ohio's only surgical abortion facility has never been more important.

The overturning of Roe would lead to the enforcement of the Ohio Heartbeat Law, the possible passage of an Ohio abortion ban, and the possible closure of our city's Planned Parenthood.

Now is the time to pray and implore Our Lord Jesus Christ and His Immaculate Mother to end abortion in our city, our state, our nation, and our world.
