Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Written by THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29 | Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a | Lk 14:1, 7-14

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There's a well-known story about an actor who was asked by an elderly priest to recite Psalm 23. The actor agreed only if the priest also recited the psalm. While the actor's delivery was met with esteem and applause, the priest's was met with raw emotion, stunned silence, and tears. The actor, smiling, said, "I may know the psalm, but the priest, he knows the Shepherd." I can't help but be reminded of this story when reading today's Gospel. Like the Pharisees, the actor represents the one who was the "center of attention" who was humbled whereas the priest, in his humble service to God, found himself exalted. That is where true humility lies, when our actions and our everyday lives are rooted in God first and not ourselves.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

As Jesus reminds us today, "Every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Beyond telling us this truth, Jesus lived it. Scripture tells us that Jesus - the second Person of the Holy Trinity - "emptied himself, taking the form of a slave..." (Phil 2:7), and that he came not "to be served but to serve" (Mk 10:45). Each of us is invited to consider the ways we can imitate the same humble servant-leadership which Jesus showed throughout his life. What does servant leadership look like, practically speaking? Some simple examples: At work, it might look like signing up to do those less desirable tasks that others would prefer to avoid. In our homes, it could look mean letting your children or spouse choose what's for dinner rather than asserting your own preferences over meal planning. In our relationships, it might mean allowing a friend to talk through their struggles without offering advice or sharing how you might have handled things differently. With the eyes of faith, each of us can see countless opportunities to practice the virtue of humility in daily life.

WITNESS

Like the priest in the story above who revealed God to the crowd in his recitation of Psalm 23, you have the opportunity to let God shine through in your life to others. Be a servant leader, seeking to glorify God rather than yourself. When you are humble you "will be exalted" and "repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Catholic Roots of Labor Day

Father Brown's Files

Tomorrow is Labor Day, a holiday that America has celebrated since 1882 to honor the social and economic achievements of the American worker. It officially became a federal holiday in 1894. These dates matter to us as Catholics because after the Civil War many Roman Catholics came over from Europe, and many of them were Irish Catholics seeking work opportunities for their families.

The 1880's was the height of the Industrial Revolution. The work conditions, pay, and hours you were expected to work were not safe or fair to the average factory worker. All of these issues were addressed by Pope Leo XIII in Rerum Novarum, which is recognized by most to be the greatest doctrine of Catholic social teaching to come out of the Vatican.

The document began drafting in 1870 and was issued by Pope Leo XIII (not to be confused with our current Pope Leo XIV...) in 1891. Much of its purpose was to address these concerns in order to preserve the human dignity of the worker and his family. On the one hand, it addressed extreme capitalism. On the other, it addressed Marxist theories and communist movements, which were supposed to be the answer to extreme capitalism. Both were attacks on the dignity of the human person and the family unit.

One example would be the right to private property. Communism would forbid the right to private property, while extreme capitalism and unfair wages would make it difficult to own private property. Communism put the state in charge of how the family should be run instead of the parents. Extreme capitalism and unfair working hours made it difficult to run your family at all, even though you technically possessed that freedom.

The late pope was not seeking to recommend one form of government over another. Instead, he put forth important principles of the state to ensure that the state ought to be operating for the common good. In essence, it proclaimed to the nations that everyone has equal dignity regardless of social status, and that it is the duty of governments to protect the human rights and needs of its people, rich or poor.

Parish Office: Mon-Thurs 8:30am-3pm • Fri 8:30am-12pm

We're so glad to see you! God loves you, and He has a great plan for your life! If you are new to St. Catharine, we want to thank you for coming and we look forward to worshipping God in Word and in Sacrament together today. Please remember to mute your cell phones and to observe sacred silence in the Church. Restrooms are located in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need any assistance or have any questions, just find someone with a green lanyard. We hope to see you again!

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN... May we suggest...relax! God put the wiggle in children, so don't feel that you must suppress it in God's house, but we do have a large quieting room and video-feed in the Parish Hall Gallery available if you feel the need to step out during Mass. But please do come back! Thank you so much for making the effort to be here, and never stop bringing your family to Mass. It's worth it.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR CHURCH... The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our congregation is growing. Any noise that our little ones make during Mass is pleasing to God's ears. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.
