Welcome to St. Catharine

WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Is 60:1-6 | Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6 | Mt 2:1-12

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Have you ever had a moment where you've been so joyful that your heart "throbbed and overflowed"? (Is. 60:5) Perhaps this prompt might call to mind moments we have been chosen or noticed, especially when we otherwise felt sidelined or forgotten. (Imagine expecting to be picked last for the team, only to be someone's first choice!) Today's first reading speaks of a moment like that. While the nations of the earth are shrouded in darkness, God shines his light and glory on Jerusalem, and all the nations come streaming to her bearing precious tributes. Similarly, our Gospel speaks about how God chose Bethlehem — a seemingly insignificant town — to be the birthplace of his Son: "And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people." Like Jerusalem and Bethlehem, we, too, have been chosen by God. As we continue our celebration of Christmas, our hearts are filled to overflowing when we recall that by taking on our flesh, God has chosen to make his home with us for all eternity.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Paul reminds us that God has chosen us, not only for ourselves, but for the sake of others: "You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit." God gives Paul a special revelation to know the mystery of God so he could preach the Gospel to the Gentiles and to all peoples. We who know the joy of having been chosen to be God's beloved sons and daughters have the beautiful task of helping others to know that they, too, are chosen by God. Because of this, evangelization is not simply an item on our spiritual to-do list; it is a work of joy — the joy of helping others to discover their own "belovedness" as children of God. And of course, this message is for everyone!

INVITATION

One of the best presents we can offer to someone is our presence. Make an effort this week to intentionally spend time with someone who may feel lonely or forgotten, setting aside other tasks to focus entirely on them. The goal is to help them feel special and chosen as a way of giving a glimpse of God's love that chooses each of us out of the many. May the gift of your presence help them to remember how very loved they are.

An Epiphany (and a Resolution)

By Bentley

Hi everyone! Bentley here. I know it's been a while since I last checked in. Christmas flew by in a swirl of activity: extra people around the parish, doors opening and closing, and more interesting smells than I could possibly keep track of. Then the decorations came down, calendars flipped to January, and suddenly we were talking about New Year's resolutions. Eat better. Exercise more. Be more patient. I don't usually make resolutions myself, but I've noticed something about humans: the best ones aren't about doing more, but about making space.

That's where the Feast of the Epiphany comes in. Epiphany is all about revelation: Jesus being made known to the whole world. The Magi notice a star, follow it faithfully, and arrive at the place where Christ is present. They don't rush past Him. They stop. They kneel. They adore.

That part really gets my attention. I know something about stopping when you find what you're looking for.

After their encounter with Jesus, the Magi don't simply go back to life as it was. Scripture tells us they "returned home by another way." Saint Augustine explains why: "Having found Christ, they returned by another road, because they had been changed." Meeting Jesus always changes the direction of our lives...even in small, quiet ways.

As the new year begins, Epiphany invites us to consider a different kind of resolution: not just what we want to improve, but where we want to spend our time. One beautiful way to do that is by committing to an hour in our Eucharistic Adoration Chapel. Just one hour a week set aside to sit with Jesus, to adore Him as the Magi did, and to let Him gently redirect our hearts.

You don't have to have the perfect words. You don't have to "do" anything at all. Just show up. Stay. Adore. You might be surprised how that hour changes the rest of your week, and maybe even the path you're walking this year.

From your parish dog: may this Epiphany help us keep the best resolution of all—making room to encounter Christ and allowing Him to lead us home by another way.

See you in the pews (or the chapel),
Bentley

Knights of Columbus®

2nd Thursdays at 7:30pm in the Parish Hall

Founded in 1992, Knights of Columbus Council #11354 is an integral part of the St. Catharine. As a brotherhood of Catholic men, we are committed to practicing and promoting the principles of charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism. Inspired by our faith, we strive to be a beacon of service, supporting our parish, our community, and our families, while creating lasting bonds with each other. Over the years, we've actively engaged in a variety of philanthropic initiatives and service projects that reflect our deep commitment to our faith and social responsibility. We welcome all Catholic men who share our values to join us in our mission of service and faith-based fellowship
