and arise from the dead,
and Christ will give you light.”*

Congratulations Deacon Anthony Whalen

We rejoice with our seminarian, Anthony Whalen, who was ordained a transitional deacon yesterday by Bishop Fernandes.

As Anthony continues his journey toward ordination to the priesthood, let us keep him in our prayers, asking God to guide and strengthen him as he faithfully responds to His call. Thank you, Anthony, for courageously following God’s will and dedicating your life to service in His Church!

Welcome to St. Catharine

WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There has been much commentary over the centuries about Jesus' use of saliva and mud to heal the man born blind. One of the most profound interpretations I have read reminds us that in Genesis, God made man out of "the dust of the ground." (Gen 2:7) Jesus' use of mud in the Gospel suggests that he is re-creating the blind man before him. The man receives a whole new life, such that even those who see him after his healing question whether he is the same person as before: "Isn't this the one who used to sit and beg?" ... "No, he just looks like him." Through this Gospel, I've come to believe that Jesus is inviting us to see that every time he touches us in the sacraments, we are inwardly re-created, inwardly renewed. As we come to this midway point in Lent, let's open our eyes to the ways God is waiting to meet us with his healing love in the sacraments, and avail ourselves of this amazing grace.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our first reading offers a powerful reminder that although humans see what's on the outside, God looks at our hearts. While the prophet Samuel thought surely God's hand was on Jesse's oldest son, God chooses David, the youngest, who was out tending the sheep. In the Gospel, the Pharisees look at the man born blind and think he is a sinner, born from sinners. But underneath is a man whom Jesus sends (the name of the pool that Jesus instructs him to go wash in means "Sent") to bear witness to all that God has done for him. God often chooses the unlikeliest (in our eyes) persons to be the messengers of his Gospel. At times we may wonder why God has chosen us or feel ourselves lacking in the qualities needed to lead others to the Lord. In those moments, let's trust that through our baptism and confirmation, the Lord has put his Spirit in us and has equipped us for the work of sharing the Gospel.

REFLECT

The lyrics "I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see," from the hymn "Amazing Grace" is based in part on today's Gospel reading. The man born blind says, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." Locate a favorite rendition of this song and use it in your prayer time this week, reflecting on the ways God has brought you greater spiritual vision and inner renewal this Lent.

Journeying Towards God's Plan

By Deacon Anthony Whalen

I extend my sincere appreciation to everyone who attended the Diaconate Ordination yesterday, as well as to those who have offered prayers during this transition into diaconal ministry for the people of St. Catharine and the Diocese of Columbus. I kindly ask that you continue to keep me in prayer as I prepare for Priestly Ordination this coming Fall.

This week's readings highlight the themes of light and healing. This Sunday marks Laetare Sunday, signifying 'to rejoice' or 'be glad.' The Gospel recounts Jesus' healing of the man born blind, illustrating the transformative power of encountering Christ, who brings us out of darkness and into divine light. As we reflect on Christ's role in overcoming sin and granting eternal life, I encourage those preparing for Baptism in these final weeks to contemplate the sacrament's capacity to impart sanctifying grace.

For those already baptized, it is advisable to examine one's conscience during the remainder of Lent and to make preparations for confession prior to Easter. It is not uncommon to be absorbed by current challenges, such as illness or personal difficulties. As Venerable Fulton Sheen wisely observed, "Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday." This sentiment is particularly pertinent as we approach the mysteries of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In times of adversity, it is important to remember the hope that Christ offers through deliverance and redemption; when burdens seem overwhelming, one may find solace by entrusting them to Christ at the foot of the Cross.

God has a plan for each of our lives. As St. Paul says in his Letter to Timothy, "If we persevere we shall also reign with him." Let us persevere on our journey so that we may give glory to God and come at last to eternal life with Him.

Mass Intentions

We have plenty of open dates available for Mass intentions in 2026. A Mass intention is a sacred way to unite a specific prayer or need with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, in which Christ offers Himself to the Father for the salvation of the world, and Mass intentions may be offered for any intention: for the living or the deceased, in thanksgiving, for healing, guidance, anniversaries, birthdays, or special needs. Sacred Scripture reminds us of the Church's call to intercessory prayer: "Supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone" (1 Timothy 2:1). The customary offering associated with a Mass intention is not a payment for the Mass, which is beyond price, but a way to participate in the Church's prayer and support the mission of the parish (cf. 1 Corinthians 9:14).

To request a Mass intention for 2026 or for more information, please contact the parish office at 614-231-4509 or info@stcatharine.com

THE FAMILY: DESIGNED OR CREATED?

THE HIDDEN EFFECTS OF IN VITRO FERTILIZATION AND CONTRACEPTION

Are we redesigning the family—or following God's blueprint? Join Dr. Perry Cahall of the Pontifical College Josephinum as he examines how IVF and contraception are shaping modern families and the life of the Church. Explore the moral, spiritual, and real-life implications, and discover how faith points us back to God's design for love, life, and family.

*Perry J. Cahall, Ph.D. is Professor of Historical Theology at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, OH, where he has been teaching since 2005. His second book, written primarily for married couples, especially for those who are engaged or newly married, is entitled, Living the Mystery of Marriage: Building Your Sacramental Life Together (2020). In 2000, Dr. Cahall married Dr. Marisa Cahall, and they are the parents of two adult children.*
