HAPPY
Mother's Day

"Her children rise up and call her blessed."

Proverbs 31:28

Welcome to St. Catharine

WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 | 1 Pt 3:15-18 | Jn 14:15-21

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Several years ago, while praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, I heard the words, “I just couldn’t bear to leave you.” It was one of the clearest responses to prayer that I have experienced, and it occurred at a time when I was feeling incredibly lonely. I have spent years reflecting on those words, which resurface often as I receive Christ in the Eucharist. In the Gospel today, I hear echoes of those words again as Christ explains to the Apostles the many ways in which they – and we – will not be abandoned after his ascension into heaven. As the rest of the Gospel unfolds, the events of his passion and resurrection reveal the Lord’s faithfulness to them. After the resurrection, the Apostles know they can trust his word because they remember Jesus’ promise that the Father will send an Advocate to be with them. We, also, can trust him believing that out of complete and utter love for humanity, Jesus remains with us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The Apostles accompanied one another in their community of faith, and they walked with those who had recently responded to God’s call to know the truth, as we see with the newly baptized in Samaria. In our lives today, the value of accompaniment cannot be underestimated. In our busy world when it is easy to feel disconnected and alone, being with one another is a powerful way to be a vessel through which Christ proclaims his promise to never leave us. By sitting with another in a time of grief, listening to the questions of a friend who is struggling, or rejoicing with a friend in response to good news, we accompany each other through life’s ups and downs. Sometimes accompaniment consists of proclaiming the Good News of Christ’s love and thereby helping others to have the courage to do the same. In whatever ways we are called to accompany another in their journey of faith, we do so with the promise that Christ is doing the same for us.

ACCOMPANY

In this joyful season of Easter, we continue to celebrate those who entered or were fully welcomed into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. This week, consider reaching out to someone who is new to the Church to celebrate with them, offer your continued prayers for them, or invite them to a parish event.

The Art of Sitting

By Rachel Green

Something interesting about the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program is that the founders of the program in 1954 recommended that every atrium have the "Madonna of the Chair" by Raphael hung somewhere in the room.

Why this piece in particular? I asked the same question myself and honestly didn't find it that important at first. But now after 5 years as a catechist and 10 years as a mom I'm beginning to understand why.

The central theme of any atrium is to slow down and spend thoughtful, quiet time with the Good Shepherd. Recently when I asked a group of 2nd graders what the atrium provided for them, one energetic boy quickly raised his hand and said, "it is a place I don't need to rush". This was such a good reminder. Think about some of the most meaningful moments in the Gospels, Jesus was often sitting with his followers. It is often in the moments of stillness that God works.

The "Madonna della Seggiola" is so important to the atrium because it reminds us that if we want to grow closer to Christ, we must sit with Him like his mother did and hold Him close in adoration. The round painting draws the viewer in. You not only see how much love and tenderness is shared between Mary and Jesus but you feel and experience it yourself.

I chose to write about this today because we all know that it's Mother's day! Mothers have such a special role to play in a child's life. The many jobs a mother has to complete in a day is exhaustive and honestly I can very much feel like a serving mother in the atrium as well. The needs of the child are many and can be daunting. But pause for a moment, what times in your own motherhood or with your own mother are most memorable? I bet most of them are when you are sitting down. I know for me I get distracted by the mess. Sitting can often be translated in my mind as "lazy". BUT it is when I decide to stop and sit with my children to: read a book, have my nails painted, build a castle, watch a movie or simply snuggle that are the most "holy" moments. With my own mom I can still remember the times she sat and rocked me as a child.

I write this as someone that has not yet perfected that "art" of sitting in her own motherhood. You will often find me chasing and tripping over things (and then yelling). But I write this as an encouragement to us all. Take time to sit today with someone you love. Take time to sit this week with our Mother and adore the Father of all. You won't regret it.
