ORDINARY TIME

ST. CATHARINE CHURCH

---

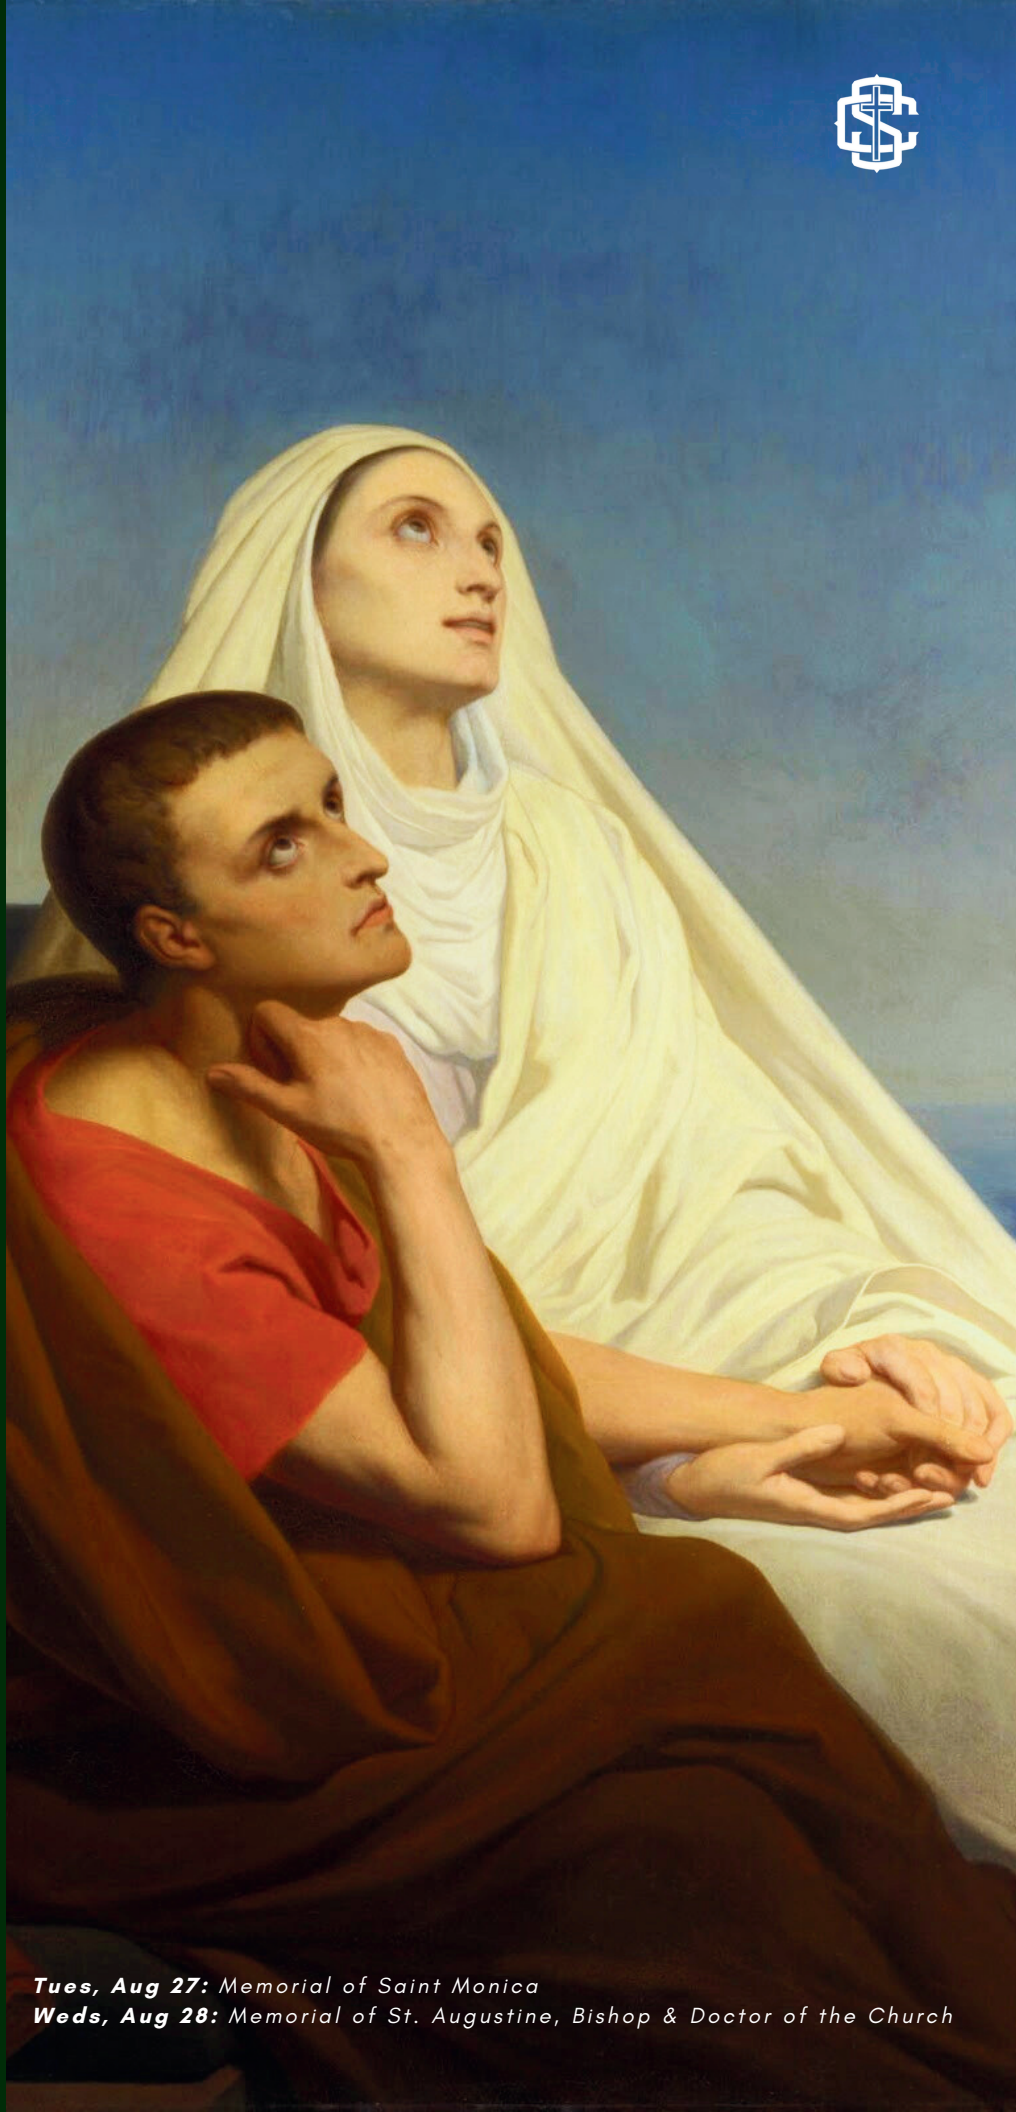

"...Decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Prayer to St. Monica for Wayward Children

Dear St. Monica, you were once the mournful mother of a prodigal son. Your faithfulness to prayer brought you and your son so close to God that you are now with him in eternity. By your intercession and God's grace, your son St. Augustine became a great and venerable saint of the Church. Please take my request to God with the same fervor and persistence with which you prayed for your own son.

With your needs, worries and anxieties, you threw yourself on the mercy and providence of God. Through sorrow and pain, you constantly devoted yourself to God. Pray for me that I might join you in such a deep faith in God's goodness and mercy.

Above all, dear Saint Monica, pray for me that I may, like your son, turn from my sin and become a great saint for the glory of God. Amen.

Parish Office: Mon-Thurs 8:30am-3pm • Fri 8:30am-12pm

We're so glad to see you! God loves you, and He has a great plan for your life! If you are new to St. Catharine, we want to thank you for coming and we look forward to spending the next hour or so worshipping God in Word and in Sacrament together. Please remember to silence your cell phones and to observe silence in the Church. Restrooms are located in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need any assistance or have any questions, just find someone with a green lanyard. We hope to see you again!

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN... May we suggest...relax! God put the wiggle in children, so don't feel that you must suppress it in God's house, but we do have a large quieting room available if you feel the need to step out during Mass. Thank you so much for making the effort to be here, and never stop bringing your family to Mass. It's worth it.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR CHURCH... The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our congregation is growing. Any noise that our little ones make during Mass is pleasing to God's ears. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Walk With One

In the Scriptures, we hear over and over how Jesus invited people one by one to follow him. He also invites us to follow him more deeply and, just like him, to "walk with one" person to a new or renewed experience of God's love.

You might be asking yourself: Where do I start with inviting someone to take a step closer to Jesus? How might I invite them forward in their faith? Here's a simple four-stage process of accompaniment that focuses on a "heart-to-heart" approach:

1. Identify someone in a spirit of humility
2. Intercede for that person in communion with the Holy Spirit
3. Connect in Eucharistic friendship
4. Invite that person on a path most suitable for him or her

The bottom line is this: If you can open your heart to speak about how Jesus has touched your life, your heart will touch the heart of whomever the Holy Spirit leads you to accompany.

From the Principal's Desk

In the spring of 2014, my mid-life crisis became my mid-life calling. After decades of working dozens of jobs and multiple careers, I finally found my vocation in my 40s. On the feast day of St. Mary Magdalene I turned down two different jobs (both of which would have tripled my salary) to become a 5th grade Catholic school teacher, coincidentally, at St. Mary Magdalene School. Anytime I prayerfully questioned whether this was what I was meant to be, I was always reminded by the Holy Spirit to take up my cross and get back to work.

As a Catholic School Principal I don't take the responsibility of my calling lightly. The Holy Spirit guided me to St. Catharine School and reminded me how little my will actually mattered and how much His will should drive the formation of young people. One of the most valuable lessons I've learned from my former life as a college coach was the power of self-talk. Much like adding the work "yet" to the end of a statement for students who may be facing academic challenges leads to a growth mindset, changing one word for me was a life-changing difference. Changing the phrase from "Have-to" to "Get-to" not only made a difference in my professional life, but brought me closer to Jesus. Pressure is a privilege, and saying that we "get-to" face these challenges in education makes all the difference.

Being led by three distinct virtues over my career provided a "true north" in terms of what should guide St. Catharine School. Humility, Empathy, and Authenticity are the foundational cornerstones of character for all of our staff and students. However, it begs the question, who do we want our students to be when they leave St. Catharine School?" Putting virtue into action and identifying the outcome of the educational process is imperative to continual growth.

"It's not what you can make them do, it's who they become because of you."

As Catholic School educators, we are immersed in the process of coaching, mentoring, developing, catechizing, and evangelizing young people, regardless of where they are, but knowing who they should become. It is important to know who we want our young people to be. What is the desired outcome of that process?

The purpose of Catholic Education should lead our students to become three things:

Disciples

Nothing encompasses who our students should be more than Discipleship. Following Jesus with the wisdom to know why we follow Him, the discipline to always follow Him, and the courage to encourage others to follow Him separates the Catholic school student from the secular-only outcomes.

Leaders

We cannot develop leaders without letting them lead. It is our responsibility to provide the framework of what leadership is and to provide the opportunity for them to lead. Having the ability of leading themselves requires the kindness, responsibility, and self-accountability needed for lifelong learning.

Problem-Solvers

Regardless of academic endeavor or social situation, students at all ages must have the self-efficacy and high agency to overcome the many obstacles they will face. We adults will not always be there to take their burden. Our job is to ensure they always have a model (Jesus) to strive for and an advocate (The Holy Spirit) to support them.

The Role of the Church in American Political Life

Our national tradition of religious freedom encourages all people of faith to express their religious convictions in the public square. During his visit to the U.S., Pope Francis affirmed that religious liberty transcends places of worship, individuals, and families and is integral to the culture of every nation.

In his most recent encyclical, Pope Francis wrote, “If society is to have a future, it must respect the truth of our human dignity and submit to that truth” (Fratelli Tutti, no. 207). The sanctity of human life, the equal dignity of all individuals, the obligation to protect the vulnerable, and the nature and purposes of sex, marriage, and family are not exclusively “religious” truths but truths that can be known by natural reason.

As Catholics, we must illuminate these truths to our nation through our unique roles in the Church’s mission:

Bishops/Clergy: govern the Church, uphold doctrine, and administer sacraments.

In political life: clergy help form the laity with basic principles, but do not tell the laity to vote for particular candidates.

Lay Faithful: bring the gospel to the world, advocate for justice, and serve in public office.

In political life: the laity are called to form their consciences and make informed decisions to fulfill their duty to vote and participate in public life.

It is our responsibility to study Catholic teaching and tradition, participate in the Church's life, learn from trustworthy sources about the issues facing our communities, and do our best to make wise judgments about candidates and public policy. By forming our consciences for faithful citizenship, we can better pursue the common good and obey the command of our Lord to love our neighbors.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me”

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✠ Part 62: The Rite of Peace ✠

After the Our Father and Embolism, as The General Instruction for the Roman Missal says, “There follows the Rite of Peace, by which the Church entreats peace and unity for herself and for the whole human family, and the faithful express to each other their ecclesial communion and mutual charity before communicating in the Sacrament” (GIRM, 82). At this point in the Mass, the priest prays, “Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.” The people then reply, “Amen.”

What True Peace Is—and What It’s Not

What is true peace? Perhaps we could go to various definitions. Our Catechism says, “Peace is not merely the absence of war, and is not limited to maintaining a balance of powers” (CCC, 2304). The Catechism continues with a quotation from St. Augustine, who wrote that peace is “the tranquility of order” (CCC, 2304). “Earthly peace is the image and fruit of the peace of Christ, the messianic ‘Prince of Peace.’ By the blood of his Cross... he reconciled men with God and made his Church the sacrament of the unity of the human race and of its union with God. ‘He is our peace’ [Eph 2:14]” (CCC, 2305). As Edward Sri writes, “Many people seek the security and peace of this world, which is a peace based on success, on everything going well, on avoiding problems and suffering. But this kind of peace is quite fragile and fleeting... Christ, however, offers us a deeper, longer lasting peace—one that the world does not give. When we allow Jesus to be the foundation of our lives and live according to his plan for us, he gives us an internal, spiritual peace that can withstand life’s many disappointments, trials, and sufferings. This is the kind of peace of heart that also builds true unity within marriages, families, communities, parishes, and nations. And this is what the priest prays for at this moment of the liturgy” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 130-31).

Hopefully, we have had moments of true peace in our hearts that remind us of how generously Jesus has loved us. For anyone who hasn’t, the gift of Jesus in the Eucharist certainly invites us to that peace for which we long. As we prepare to receive the Prince of Peace truly present in Holy Communion, perhaps it seems fitting that the Rite of Peace occurs at this moment in the Mass. According to Charles Belmonte, “When we pronounce our ‘Amen,’ we must realize that we are asking not only for our personal peace but also for peace for the whole Church... During the Last Supper, our Lord made his disciples aware of the importance of peace, the fruit of charity. Many times he spoke of unity, of the spirit of service, of humility, of charity. These are virtues and dispositions of the soul which can thrive only in an atmosphere of peace.” (Understanding the Mass, pp. 173-74).

Peace As Preparation for Communion

So, without a doubt, peace is an ardent desire and need for us as Christian people. This is true at all times of our lives, but especially at the Holy Mass. In the Mass, there are many wonderful gifts and graces; we certainly are going to receive those graces more fruitfully if our hearts are at peace and open to Christ, as opposed to being distracted and upset over things that happen to us. This is most true when the time for Holy Communion comes. We are preparing to receive the most wonderful gift: we can’t have a distracted heart! So, we make sure, by a prayer and a gesture, that we really are ready to go forward to receive Our Lord.

Fr. Guy Oury, reflecting on the Rite of Peace in the Mass, says, “Through the sign of peace, we ask for peace and unity within the Church, and beyond its visible boundaries, for the whole human family. And since in our gatherings we are a cell of the Church, we express our mutual love before receiving together the one Bread that makes us one. These are the two components of the rite: a prayer for the peace and unity of the Church and an exchange of the sign of fraternal converse, if not with the whole world, at least with our nearest neighbors” (The Mass, pp. 111-12). So, we aren’t just making sure things are ok with people in our pew; we are also making a symbolic gesture of peace for the whole world! Next week, we’ll take a look at some different ways to offer the Sign of Peace, and why this is not the time for “high fives” and making plans for later in the day!

For Reflection:

1. Consider St. Augustine’s description of peace as “the tranquility of order.” Pray with a Scripture passage that describes the peace of the ordered city or kingdom of God, such as Isaiah 32, Isaiah 54, Psalm 122, or Revelation 21.
2. Peace is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit which St. Paul lists in his Letter to the Galatians (5:22). Implore the Holy Spirit for this fruit in your own life and the grace and guidance to share this gift with others.

Pregnant? There is help and you are not alone.

WOMEN'S CARE CENTER
COLUMBUS, OHIO

Women's Care Center provides free, confidential counseling, parenting classes, and support and education for pregnant women. Free pregnancy testing and ultrasounds help determine the status of your pregnancy and dates (prenatal medical care and abortions not provided). WCC also provides almost anything a new mother might need: crib, clothes, car seat, etc., and a loving and supporting community of expectant and current moms.

Bottoms Up
DIAPER BANK

Bottoms Up Diaper Bank exists to help meet the needs of families and single mothers who can't afford enough diapers to keep their children clean, dry, and healthy. Since then, Bottoms Up has delivered more than 560,000 diapers to over 70 food pantries and child care facilities in central Ohio for distribution to those in need.

Pregnancy Decision Health Centers

Pregnancy Decision Health Centers (PDHC) serves women and families in the central Ohio community during and after pregnancy. All services at PDHC are confidential, free and provided by highly qualified professionals. PDHC offers pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, options information, parenting classes, links to community resources and post-abortion recovery help.

PDHC is here for you with free pregnancy tests, prenatal vitamins, pregnancy & parenting classes, clothes, diapers, car seats and more. Sometimes all you need is someone to listen, and sometimes you need answers to your questions. Whatever is on your mind, our team is on the other end of the line, waiting to be your support system, day or night.
