The Mass

"Do This in Remembrance of Me" A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 20: The Gospel

For many of us, the Gospel is one of our favorite parts of the Mass. We get to hear the stories about Jesus and the Apostles, how Jesus worked miracles of healing, and the words that he taught. For many, it is easy to imagine the scenes in our minds as we listen to the words. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, "The reading of the Gospel constitutes the high point of the Liturgy of the Word" (GIRM, no. 60). The Second Vatican Council teaches us that the Gospels have a special importance among all the books of the Bible because they are "the principal witness for the life and teaching" of Jesus (Dei Verbum, 18). According to Charles Belmonte, the proclamation of the Gospel "emphasizes the union between the Incarnate Word, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, symbolized by the altar and sacramentally present after the Consecration, and the word of God written in the Gospel" (Understanding the Mass, p. 91).

The Meaning of the Gospel

What does the word Gospel mean? The glossary of the Catechism defines Gospel as "[t]he 'good news' of God's mercy and love revealed in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. [...] The Gospel is handed on in the apostolic tradition of the Church as the source of all-saving truth and moral discipline" (CCC, Glossary, "Gospel"). The four Gospels are named after their human writers: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. The Second Vatican Council teaches, "The Church has always and everywhere maintained, and continues to maintain, the apostolic origin of the four Gospels. The apostles preached, as Christ had charged them to do, and then, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, they and others of the apostolic age handed on to us in writing the same message they had preached, the foundation of our faith: the fourfold Gospel, according to Matthew, Mark, Luke and John." (Dei Verbum, 18).

During the Mass, after we stand for the Gospel Acclamation, the priest or deacon begins with that familiar dialogue: "The Lord be with you!" and the people respond, "And with your spirit!" Then, the priest introduces the Gospel and the people respond, "Glory to you, O Lord!" These back-and-forth dialogues help us to prepare for what is about to happen: the Lord Jesus speaking to us. Another preparation for the words of Jesus is a simple gesture of a sign of the Cross. As the priest or deacon says, "A reading from the holy Gospel according to...", he will make a sign of the Cross on the Gospel book. At the same time, the people at Mass trace a small sign of the Cross on their foreheads, lips, and chests. I still remember, as a young boy, my dad teaching us to make this gesture and to say to ourselves: "May the words of the Gospel be in my mind, on my lips, and in my heart." Those words have stayed with me through the years and are still a sincere prayer that the Word of God would be at the forefront of my daily living. As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, these acts and prayers are all "signs of veneration for the Word of God proclaimed to us in the holy Gospel. Our standing, our singing the Alleluia, our gestures and our responses are all outward signs of our inward disposition of love for Christ and reverence for his Word" ("A Study of the Mass," p. 8).

Our Response to the Gospel

At the conclusion of the gospel passage for a particular Mass, the priest or deacon says, "The Gospel of the Lord!" Our response in faith is, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!" Then, the priest or deacon kisses the page he just read from and says silently, "Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be wiped away." Charles Belmonte beautifully writes that "we can at least make ours the kiss the priest has placed on the sacred book. With it, we want to tell our Lord we are ready to give our lives for the truths contained in the Gospel... At the same time, we ask forgiveness for our faults" (Understanding the Mass, p. 95).

Of course, the Gospels are so wonderful that we should read and pray about them more often than just at Sunday Mass. The life of Jesus is so rich and beautiful and can really provide great strength for us every day. Maybe try reading just one chapter of the Gospels every day and see what happens!

For Reflection

1. Accept Father Luke's advice and begin reading one of the four Gospels, starting with a chapter each day. Savor this opportunity to journey closer into relationship with Jesus.
2. Look at how each Gospel author introduces his text. What do the opening verses of each Gospel reveal about the message therein?

*Consecration Day

Mary's Mantle Consecration for Busy People

is coming to St. Catharine on October 28, 2023!

What is it?

Join with other busy people to ponder the virtues and the gifts of the Holy Spirit with our Blessed Mother, as we ask Heaven's help to become more like Jesus.

When does it begin and end?

Our Mary's Mantle Consecration begins on the Feast of St. Jude (10/28) and ends on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe (12/12). It lasts for 46 days, one for each star on our Blessed Mother's Mantle. Join us on Consecration Day (12/12) to make your consecration following the 7pm Mass with St. John Paul II's prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe.

How do I do it?

Pray, fast, Contemplate the virtues and the gifts of the Holy Spirit, add a star to Mary's mantle, and then make your consecration. Do Mary's Mantle as a family or invite a friend to join you. If you miss a day? God is mercy! Keep going!

Spiritual Practices of Mary's Mantle Consecration

ADD A STAR

For each day of the Mary's Mantle Consecration, add a star to her mantle.

PRAY THE ROSARY

Pray a daily Rosary throughout the 46 days. Little children could be invited to pray along for one decade (or even one Hail Mary if they are really little) and the rest of the family could finish the Rosary.

FAST

Many miracles have happened through fasting! The suggested fast (for adults who are healthy and strong) is bread and water for one day but a modified fast could also be observed - similar to fasting during Lent, by choosing one thing (desserts, coffee, etc.) for the 46 days.

CONTEMPLATE THE VIRTUES AND THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Read the short meditations on the virtues and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. Join our daily email and get them in your inbox or go to www.queenofpeacemedia.com and click on the Mary's Mantle Consecration link - the meditations for stars 1-46 are linked on the bottom of the page. You can purchase the Mary's Mantle Consecration book (and prayer journal), by Christine Watkins on Amazon or www.queenofpeacemedia.com.

CONSECRATE YOURSELVES TO JESUS THROUGH MARY ON DECEMBER 12

On the Feast of the Virgin of Guadalupe, consecrate yourself and your family to Our Blessed Mother. The consecration prayer is also linked on the Mary's Mantle Consecration page, but we will also have it for you on email and available after the 7pm Mass on December 12. What's a consecration? Consecration means "to make holy". When we consecrate ourselves to Our Lady, we are consecrating ourselves to Jesus through Mary - accepting her help and entrusting ourselves to her guidance.

How do I begin?

Cut out the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe in this bulletin or pick one up in the back of the church so you can add a star to Mary's mantle each day. You can purchase the book, Mary's Mantle Consecration A Spiritual Retreat for Heaven's Help, from the queenofpeacemedia.com bookstore. OR you can email toni@stcatharine.com to have the virtue or gift for each day's meditation emailed right to your inbox! (The meditations are also available on the Mary's Mantle website).
