WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

Most Holy Trinity

Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9 | 2 Cor 13:11-13 | Jn 3:16-18

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's first reading, we hear how Moses, obedient to God's command, ascends Mount Sinai early in the morning. Up at the summit, the Lord appears to Moses in a cloud and shares his name with Moses: "LORD" (in Hebrew, the tetragrammaton, the unspeakably holy divine name). But God doesn't only reveal the name that Moses should call him by; he also reveals what kind of God he is: "The Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses bows down in worship and entreats the Lord to "receive us as your own." Today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity reminds us that we have a God who wants us to not only know his name, but to know his inner self. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are - indeed - the God who is rich in mercy. And anyone who believes in this God will not perish but will have eternal life. May we bow our hearts in worship of the Lord this day, grateful for the gift we have of belonging to the people he calls his own.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our second reading contains a detail that might come as a surprise to our 21st-century ears: "Greet one another with a holy kiss." This gesture in the New Testament era was an outward sign of the communion and love that existed in the early Church - a communion that we're also called to today. The communion that exists in the Church is meant to point the world back to its source: God himself. Part of the witness we're called to offer the world as Christian believers is the love we share among one another. The Church is to be a sacrament or "sign and instrument ... of ... union with God" and unity with "the whole human race." (Lumen Gentium 1) The bonds of love that exist among Christians is about more than just having a tight-knit community; it's about showing the world that we're called to a loving relationship with God and with one another.

WITNESS

This week, consider how you can strengthen the bonds of friendship you have with your fellow Christians, so that united together in love and peace, you can bear witness to the God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Consider participating in a fellowship (social) event being put on by your parish or invite someone you see regularly at Church out for coffee or brunch after Mass.

Three Persons, One Parish Family

By Bentley

I can hardly believe it, but Summer is already here. The school year has wrapped up, backpacks are being tossed aside, and everyone seems just a little more excited walking around campus these days. I've noticed more laughter, more people outside, and maybe even a few extra snacks dropped on the ground for me to "help clean up." Truly a blessed season.

And now one of the biggest weekends of parish life is almost here: FunFest! I've been hearing all the humans talk about it for weeks. There's so much preparation happening behind the scenes — volunteers signing up, families planning to come, tents going up, and everyone working together to make it happen. From my spot around the parish, it's one of my favorite things to watch because it reminds me what makes a church community special.

This weekend we also celebrate Trinity Sunday, when we reflect on the mystery of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Now, I'm just a dog, so I'll leave the deep theology to Father and the smart people. But even I can see something important about the Trinity: God is a communion of persons, the original holy family, if you will. The Trinity is a perfect communion of love — always giving, always united, always together.

That's what I see happening here at our parish too.

No one person creates a school community. No one person pulls off FunFest. It takes all kinds of people sharing their gifts, serving one another, and coming together with joy. Some people organize. Some cook. Some volunteer at booths. Some set up tables. Some simply show up and bring encouragement and laughter. Every person matters.

As summer begins, I hope you'll make time not only for vacations and fun, but also for faith, family, and community. Come to Mass. Come to FunFest. Spend time with one another. Check in on neighbors and friends. Share joy generously. And if you happen to see me wandering around looking for treats and attention, please continue that ministry as well.

Happy Trinity Sunday, everyone. I can't wait to see you at FunFest.

— Bentley 🐾
