A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

We're so glad to see you! God loves you, and He has a great plan for your life! If you are new to St. Catharine, we want to thank you for coming and we look forward to worshipping God in Word and in Sacrament together today. Please remember to silence your cell phones and to observe silence in the Church. Restrooms are located in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need any assistance or have any questions, just find someone with a green lanyard. We hope to see you again!

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN... May we suggest...relax! God put the wiggle in children, so don't feel that you must suppress it in God's house, but we do have a large quieting room available if you feel the need to step out during Mass. Thank you so much for making the effort to be here, and never stop bringing your family to Mass. It's worth it.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR CHURCH... The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our congregation is growing. Any noise that our little ones make during Mass is pleasing to God's ears. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Dear Parish Family,

Welcome to the Dashboard!

This is the new format by which we will be sharing financial updates with you on a regular basis. The dashboard provides a breakdown that lets you see how we are doing in each area of ministry in the parish. One thing to note - Income and expenditures fluctuate throughout the year so don't worry too much about areas that appear to be in "the red". The Finance Committee and I believe that we are still on track to break even at the end of this financial year on June 30th, 2025.

The dashboard is the top sheet of detailed financials that are reviewed by the Finance Council bi-monthly. We analyze everything and I am enormously grateful to the talented people who are helping me. The council can ask questions, propose solutions and guide us forward. It is not the most glamorous area of ministry, but a sound financial bedrock is essential to us being able to evangelize others, be generous to the poor, and support our parish school and faith formation programs for all ages.

A few things to notice:

The offertory is up 7.2% on last year and keeping in line with our budget – thank you so much for your generosity!

Expenditures in July and August were much higher than income, partly because we have no income from EdChoice tuition until the middle of September but still have all our salaries and benefits to pay for our staff in the parish and school. We anticipate that, as the year progresses, we will be able to turn that "frown into a smile" and balance everything out.

If you have any questions about the dashboard, you are welcome to contact Beth Sisson or myself and we would be happy to help if we can.

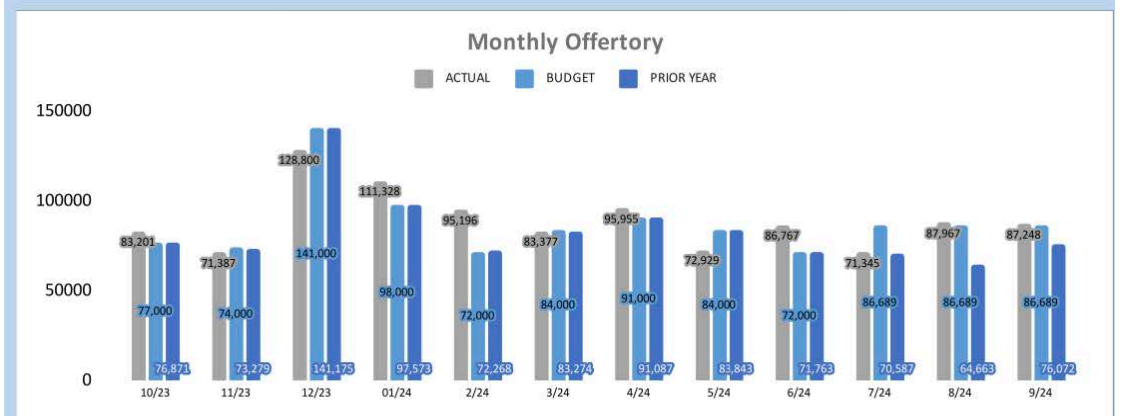

The next dashboard you will see is the financial statement for the end of the 2023-24 financial year. That will need a little more explaining, but I hope to have it to you in the next week or so.

God bless,

Fr. Bob, Pastor

Maddy's Message

Hello everyone, My name is Maddy Schafhausen. I am the Administrative Assistant for the Parish and the Wedding and Event Coordinator for the Msgr. Sorohan Parish Center. Before I took this role at the parish, I was working in the Maintenance Department with our Facility Director, Chuck. You may not have seen me personally but I was always there supporting the school, preschool, parish center, the church and her many teachings. I was born and raised here in Columbus, OH. I graduated from Bishop Hartley in 2020 and my little sister followed me in 2023. I coach a local swim team called GreenWave! I started helping coach this team after my high school swim team practices with my Dad, Chuck, and my high school coach, Tony Phillips. This team is for 6th to 8th graders throughout the diocese. I have coached this team for 6 years and I love every bit of it, from a kid's first jump off the block to their first place win in their heat.

After I graduated, I started working at the School with my dad in the summer of 2020. Being in the maintenance department was a different change of pace for me. But I loved being behind the scenes, knowing that I am keeping the building running and safe. In the summer of 2022, Chuck and I moved our office to the parish offices, where we supported the whole campus. From the preschool to the rectory, we covered everything. It was tough but we got it done. In 2023, I assumed the role as the Wedding and Event Coordinator for the Parish Center. I had set up wedding receptions before but I wanted to make sure that each bride and groom had the perfect day, and part of that is the setup of their reception. It may seem like it is not, but it is an important aspect of your day. My job is to make sure that your setup is everything you want. I get to meet the couple, and design their floor plan to make sure that everything runs as smoothly as possible whether you have 100 guests or 300 guests! In 2024, I assumed the role of the Administrative Assistant for the parish. I had filled in for Sue Denz when she needed me at the front desk. I knew this new role would be a change to what I had done for the past 4 years but I like the new change.

Being able to see what the Church can do for those who need help or are just joining us, I am always here to help whether I am planning a baptism, your wedding, or a large party. I will always be here no matter which hat I have on that day, Maintenance, Administrative or Planner, I will always be here to greet you with a smile.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me”

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 73: Communion under Both Forms

Last time, we addressed making a sign of reverence before receiving Communion in the sacred host or in the chalice. This time, we consider receiving from the chalice in particular. You may have noticed differences in what churches do for Communion. Someone who travels might encounter parishes where the Precious Blood is offered and others where everyone receives the sacred host without receiving from the chalice.

Let's look at The General Instruction of the Roman Missal: “It is most desirable that the faithful, just as the Priest himself is bound to do, receive the Lord’s Body from hosts consecrated at the same Mass and that, in the cases where this is foreseen, they partake of the chalice, so that even by means of the signs Communion may stand out more clearly as a participation in the sacrifice actually being celebrated” (GIRM, 85). The point here is to emphasize that receiving Communion itself should help unite us to the Holy Sacrifice—through hosts consecrated at the Mass and, (then notice) “where this is foreseen,” from the chalice.

When Do We Receive Communion from the Chalice?

So, when are members of the faithful able to receive from the chalice? The GIRM reminds us that the bishops have the authority to give guidelines for the manner of receiving Communion in their dioceses. This is because the bishops are the caretakers of the liturgy within their dioceses. The GIRM does provide some guidelines for the bishops to follow: “Holy Communion has a fuller form as a sign when it takes place under both kinds. For in this form the sign of the Eucharistic banquet is more clearly evident and clearer expression is given to the divine will by which the new and eternal Covenant is ratified in the Blood of the Lord, as also the connection between the Eucharistic banquet and the eschatological banquet in the Kingdom of the Father” (GIRM, 281). What is this paragraph saying with “both kinds” (or sometimes we see the description “both forms”)? The reference here is to Communion being offered under the form of the sacred host and in the chalice. That is, that Communion would be offered in forms that involve both eating and drinking.

Why Don't We Always Receive from the Chalice?

So, why don't we always have Communion under both forms? Believe it or not, one simple reason is practicality. Having numerous people drink from the chalice requires either a very large chalice or a number of chalices. Depending on the size of the parish, this could be no problem; but in parishes that are very large, this can become a challenge. In one parish where I visited, there were 10 to 20 extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion at every Mass. As you might imagine, getting all these folks prepared and to their stations was quite a process. Another practical reason for some bishops and pastors is concern for reverence and the worry over potentially spilling the Precious Blood. Additionally, with heightened sensitivity to health, for some, the sharing of the chalice is personally challenging.

Along with some of these practical reasons, there is also a faith consideration based on our belief that Jesus is really and completely present under either form of Communion. The GIRM states, “Sacred pastors should take care to ensure that the faithful... are made aware by the most suitable means possible of the Catholic teaching on the form of Holy Communion as laid down by the Ecumenical Council of Trent. Above all, they should instruct the Christian faithful that the Catholic faith teaches that Christ, whole and entire, and the true Sacrament, is received even under only one species, and hence that as regards the resulting fruits, those who receive under only one species are not deprived of any grace that is necessary for salvation” (GIRM, 282). This text reminds pastors to make sure people know that receiving the host is receiving the whole Christ; receiving from the chalice is receiving the whole Christ; receiving both forms is receiving the whole Christ. There have been times in history where this teaching was not necessarily clear; for some, receiving Communion under one form can assist with that clarity.

Who Decides When We Receive from the Chalice?

Ultimately, the decision is up to the bishop, who can choose to extend the decision to the individual pastor. Bishops are charged to do whatever they think will be most helpful to people spiritually, while at the same time guarding the true faith and reverence for Jesus present in the Holy Sacrament. So, when you travel and notice that some parishes have Communion under both forms and some do not, know that the bishop and pastor have decided, according to the instruction of the GIRM, to do what they think is best for their parishes and people at the present time. As always, if we don't understand the wisdom of our leaders in these decisions, we are invited to pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance and wisdom, and continue to pray for true unity in Christ!

For Reflection:

1. Pray with 1 Corinthians 10:14-22, where St. Paul describes our unity in the “one loaf” of the Eucharist. Ask for a greater appreciation of Communion as union with Christ and one another.
2. Make a commitment to pray daily for your local bishop and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all his decisions.

WHAT WE OFFER

Authentic Catholic education

Students grow in knowledge and love of God through in-class religious education and participation in all-school mass, eucharistic adoration, and rosary.

Whole

A Catholic education seeks to educate the whole person. Students get involved and have fun while discovering their gifts, talents, and interests.

Individualized
