

Reading I: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab

God's temple in heaven was opened,
and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple.
A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun,
with the moon under her feet,
and on her head a crown of twelve stars.
She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth.
Then another sign appeared in the sky;
it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns,
and on its heads were seven diadems.
Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth.
Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth,
to devour her child when she gave birth.
She gave birth to a son, a male child,
destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod.
Her child was caught up to God and his throne.
The woman herself fled into the desert
where she had a place prepared by God.
Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:
"Now have salvation and power come,
and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One."

Responsorial Psalm: 45:10, 11, 12, 16

The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold.

The queen takes her place at your right hand in gold of Ophir.

Hear, O daughter, and see; turn your ear,
forget your people and your father's house.

So shall the king desire your beauty;
for he is your lord.

They are borne in with gladness and joy;
they enter the palace of the king.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 15:20-27

Brothers and sisters:
Christ has been raised from the dead,
the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
For since death came through man,
the resurrection of the dead came also through man.
For just as in Adam all die,
so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,
but each one in proper order:

Christ the firstfruits;
then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ;
then comes the end,
when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father,
when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power.
For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for "he subjected everything under his feet."

Alleluia

Mary is taken up to heaven;
a chorus of angels exults.

Gospel: Luke 1:39-56

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.
When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said,
"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."
And Mary said:
"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me
and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
and has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise he made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children forever."
Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

FAMILY OF FAITH

SHARE AN ADVENTURE OF FAITH WITH YOUR KIDS!

Family of Faith helps children learn the joys of following Jesus and the truths of our Catholic Faith through the witness of their parents.

Twice a month in the new parish center, St. Catharine families will share a light breakfast and hear a short teaching on that month's topic. Then, families will learn together with activities that involve the whole family! Throughout the month, parents can choose the activities and discussions they will do at home as a family to learn and experience our Catholic Faith.

This fall, St. Catharine is encouraging families with children in kindergarten through eighth grade (and their younger siblings, too!) to attend Family of Faith. Families with children preparing to receive a Sacrament must be enrolled in (and regularly attending) Family of Faith if they are not already enrolled in other religious education classes.

Raising Saints!

Children are more likely to practice the Faith they see lived out everyday at home. Family of Faith helps parents and children understand and LOVE our Catholic Faith, experiencing the transformation of a life lived for Jesus. With flexible lessons and fun activities, Family of Faith will foster a deeper relationship with Jesus individually, within your family, and even within our parish community!

Join us for:

- a talk
- & family activities

Lectio Divina

Before you begin to read, take a moment to place yourself in the presence of God and ask the Holy Spirit to help you to pray.

READ

Read the following passage for this upcoming Sunday's Gospel three times very slowly somewhere quiet.

Sunday, August 22, 2021 • Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time • John 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said,
"This saying is hard; who can accept it?"
Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this,
he said to them, "Does this shock you?
What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?
It is the spirit that gives life,
while the flesh is of no avail.
The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life.
But there are some of you who do not believe."
Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him.
And he said,
"For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father."
As a result of this,
many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.
Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"
Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of eternal life.
We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

2

REFLECT

Meditate on the passage by sitting in silence and allowing a word or phrase to jump out at you. Perhaps you even put yourself in the scene. What is God saying to you through this?

RESOLUTION

Make a concrete and simple resolution for the day or week ahead based on what God is telling you. Example: Today I will pray a decade of the rosary before I go to bed for my spouse.

What's happening at St. Catharine

A full calendar of events can be found online at stcatharine.com/calendar

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is coming to St. Catharine!

Sundays and Wednesdays this Fall

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is a hands-on method of faith formation based on the Montessori method of learning, which takes place in a dedicated prepared space for children called the atrium.

The atrium is a special place of work and prayer, filled with kid-sized furniture and hands-on models of people, places, and items found in Scripture and liturgy. Working with these materials allows the child to enter more deeply into meditation, nurturing their relationship with the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ. To donate items to our CGS Atrium, please visit www.stcatharine.com/CGS.

St. Catharine is offering two times CGS for children ages 3-5, and your child must be fully potty-trained and three years old on, or before, September 1st, 2021.

- Sundays: 9:30am-10:45am // Begins September 12th
- Wednesdays: 8:00am-9:15am // Begins September 15th

If you have a child enrolled in St. Catharine's Preschool or Kindergarten they will have CGS time during their school time, and you do not need to register them separately. Register today at www.stcatharine.com/CGS. Questions? Rachel Green • rgreen@cducation.org

Communion to the Homebound

Be a light to those who need it the most

Our homebound residents who are unable to come to church are in need of Eucharistic Ministers to make a short visit with Holy Communion on Sunday mornings. You can commit to once or twice per month. Or, maybe you feel called to make phone calls to our parishioners in assisted living facilities who aren't allowed to receive visitors yet. Pray and ask Jesus if this is something to which He is calling you. Contact Sue Denz in the Office info@stcatharine.com 614-231-4509 or Deacon Chris Reis at deaconchris@stcatharine.com.
