The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✦ Part 26: How to Engage with the Homily ✦

Why are Homilies so long anyway? To answer that question, we start by realizing that we don't always understand the Word of God perfectly when we first read it. Whenever we read a Bible passage, we should ask ourselves: “What is God saying here?” Sometimes it is pretty easy to listen to God; sometimes, it is not so easy. Sometimes reading the Bible can answer questions that we have; sometimes reading only seems to bring more questions. We humbly recognize that understanding everything about God and us is not always super-easy. So, in humility, we realize we need help. That is where the preachers of the Word come in—those who have been given a special grace to help God's people understand better his communication with us. With years of prayer and study, some preachers can become incredible resources, such as Cardinal Newman, who was known to preach on average about an hour and a half for every sermon!

Drawing Everyone Closer

In the homily, the bishop, priest, or deacon tries his best to help us hear what God is saying. We try to explain the Scripture and apply it to our lives in the local area. As we said last time, the whole point is to draw each heart in the congregation closer to Jesus. This is really important: the priest seeks out each heart. That is why sometimes the homily focuses on something you already know, do, or believe; that is why the homily might not always be perfectly on track with what you are thinking about. Because there are a lot of people in the pews with different backgrounds and experiences, preaching a homily that directly addresses everyone can be a little tricky. Have you noticed that sometimes the preacher says the same thing in a couple of ways? This is one way of helping different people to understand the same message.

Listening with Open Hearts

Make no mistake about it, though—the homily is not just the preacher trying to help people understand God’s message to us. One of the most important parts of the homily involves everyone sitting in the pews: all are invited to listen with an open heart. Each one is encouraged to follow the homily in his or her heart, taking in what is helpful and being on the lookout for the true needs of the heart. If we believe that God is working through the ordained clergy who are preaching, then there will always be something in the homily for us; we just have to listen for it.

Another important part of listening to the homily is an openness to being challenged. If we think we already know it all (or enough), our hearts won’t be ready to receive God’s message to us through the preacher. We have to be ready to admit that we don’t know everything and that we don’t always understand everything perfectly. Listening to the homily takes some humility. I recall one of the seminary professors at Mount St. Mary’s—Sister Joan—who had listened to decades of homilies day after day, including thousands by deacons in the seminary who were still learning their way. Even though she knew so much more than we did, even though at times it seemed we were trying her patience, she was always there in the front row, ready to listen attentively. What great humility! The preacher needs this same humility also, which is why we said above that he tries his best. Remember that when you hear something challenging, it is the preacher’s duty to proclaim the truth, and perhaps could be God calling you closer to his heart through the preacher’s very words.

This being said, we all know that the homily to the congregation is not always a spectacular touchdown pass. Sometimes we are distracted or tired. Sometimes we hope the preacher will speak on something in the readings that interests us, but he doesn’t get to it. Whatever the case, the Lord only asks us to give a good effort at true listening, knowing there will be something there that will help us. And when that wooden pew seat starts to get a little hard, just think of the people in years gone by who listened to homilies for hours on end and remind yourself: “Wow, it is almost time for the Creed and the Prayers of the Faithful!”

For Reflection:

1. Pray with the account of the Deacon Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch in Acts 8:26–40. As you conclude your prayer, give thanks for those ordained ministers who help us understand and respond to God’s Word in Scripture.
2. Help yourself engage with the homily at Mass by approaching this portion of the Liturgy as a treasure hunt or “game” of “hide and seek.” What message has the Lord Jesus hidden for you in this homily?

Feast of the Holy Family

Lord God, let Your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath.

From the Advent Wreath blessing

Are you ready?

Advent is the beginning of a new year in the Church and the beginning of a busy time of year - shopping, visiting, wrapping, baking. It can be overwhelming! Set aside some time to prepare your heart for the birth of baby Jesus. Advent is full of beautiful feasts and fun traditions that are perfect for families preparing to receive God's greatest gift.

Choose just a few of the traditions of our Faith to help your family ready their hearts for Jesus. Consider tying some of the preparations you already do for Christmas to the feasts and traditions of the Church. Put up your tree on the feast of St. Nicholas, hang your Christmas lights on the feast of St. Lucy, or decorate your gingerbread house on the feast of Our Lady of Loreto. If you do them together anyway, why not share the stories of our Faith at the same time?

First Sunday of Advent (or December 1 for some traditions)

Advent wreath: Create an easy one with one pink and three purple candles (check the dollar store!) and evergreens from your own yard. A quick search online will bring up information about all the symbolism of the Advent wreath and for the traditional prayers.

Jesse Tree: This tradition traces salvation history from Creation through the birth of Jesus with readings and symbolic ornaments for each day of Advent. It is named from Isaiah 11:1: "A shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom..." The Jesse Tree tells the stories of the people who lived before Jesus was born. They waited for Him, just as we wait for His birthday during Advent. Search online or email Toni Carmon for more about the Jesse Tree.

Spiritual Christmas Crib: Each day of December, we "build" one part of the stable by offering the suggested spiritual practice and saying the short prayer to create a beautiful "crib" for the Christ Child. The adult version in this bulletin begins on December 1.

December 6 - Feast of St. Nicholas

Santa Claus was born in Turkey. He became bishop of Myra. The Catholic Church recognizes Nicholas, bishop of Myra (aka Santa Claus), as a canonized Saint - which means he is in Heaven and can intercede to God for us. So let's celebrate! Learn some of the legends about St. Nicholas. In many homes, children set out one of their shoes by the fireplace with a letter to Santa on December 5. In the morning on December 6, maybe the letter will be replaced with a golden chocolate coin and a candy cane or an orange.

December 8 - Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This feast (also a holy day of obligation opportunity) is not about the conception of Jesus, but of the Virgin Mary. Wear blue, go to Mass at St. Catharine and afterwards, join us for a family rosary and cookie exchange in the St. Peter room to honor our Blessed Mother.

December 10 - Our Lady of Loreto

Read online about the fun story of the Virgin Mary's house. There is also a video on Prime, called The Mystery of the Holy House. On this day, it can be fun to decorate a gingerbread house together. If you decorate the house to celebrate Our Lady of Loreto, don't forget to add the angels!

December 9 - St. Juan Diego and December 12 - Our Lady of Guadalupe

Share the story of St. Juan Diego and Our Lady of Guadalupe with your children. Make Mexican hot chocolate (recipes online or buy Abuelita) and enjoy it with cookies for dessert after a fun Mexican meal of tamales, fajitas, or tacos to celebrate the day. Pray the joyful mysteries of the rosary together. If you have been doing the Mary's Mantle Consecration, join us after Tuesday evening Mass to say the consecration prayer together and receive a small gift to celebrate the day.

December 13 - St. Lucy Day

Her name means light, so consider celebrating this day with a nighttime car ride to look at Christmas lights. Pile everyone in the car in their pajamas with some hot chocolate and sing Christmas carols as you drive around your neighborhood. This is one of those traditions your children won't forget next year.

December 16-24 - The Children's Christmas Crib and The Golden Nights: Praying the O Antiphons

Keep the focus on preparing for the birth of Baby Jesus. The Children's version of the Christmas Crib begins on December 16. For each of the nine days leading up to Christmas, children can draw another part of the stable, offer the spiritual practice, and say the short prayer. The "Golden Nights" - or O Antiphons might be for adults and older children. The O Antiphons are short prayers from the Divine office (during Vespers), each addressing God with a different title each day ("O Wisdom," "O Root of Jesse," etc.), calling on Him to fulfill His promise to send a Savior. In some families, the Golden Nights are accompanied by special treats (of course) - after prayer you can share whatever golden wrapped candies you find that year, a different surprise each night. You can find the prayers online or email Toni Carmon (toni@stcatharine.com) to pick up a booklet.

Christmas Eve and Christmas Day

This is not the end, Christmas is just beginning! Swap out your Advent candles for white or gold candles and use your Advent wreath until at least Epiphany. Crank up the Christmas music and bring out the cookies! Can you keep celebrating God's great gift to us until the feast of the Baptism of Jesus? Merry Christmas!

Truly, there's not enough room on this page to include all the fun things your family could do to celebrate the great Gift God has given us, His Son. Don't try to do them all. Start small and have fun. Have a blessed Advent.

Build a Spiritual Christmas Crib

This Advent, build a spiritual crib in your heart for Jesus. Every day, starting with December 1, read (and do) the suggested spiritual practice. Say the short prayer (in italics) as often as you can remember. By Christmas, your heart will be a worthy crib for the Divine Babe of Bethlehem.

1-THE STABLE Offer your heart to the little infant Jesus. Ask Him to make it His home. -Sweet Jesus, take my heart and make it meek and pure.	2-THE ROOF Protect the Infant Jesus from rain and snow by avoiding every uncharitable remark. - Jesus, teach me to love my neighbor as myself.	3-CREVICES Keep wind and cold from every crevice in the stable walls. Guard your senses against temptations. - Jesus keep temptations out of my heart.	4-COBWEBS Clean the cobwebs from your crib by removing from your heart the desire to be praised. - Jesus, I want to please You in all I do today.	5-FENCE Build a fence around the crib of your heart by keeping a strict watch over your eyes, especially at prayer. - Sweet Jesus, I long to see You.	6-MANGER Fix the best corner of your heart for Jesus' manger by abstaining from what you like most in comfort today. - Dear Jesus, let me suffer for love of You.
7-HAY Supply the manger with hay, by overcoming feelings of pride, anger, or envy. - Jesus, teach me to know and correct my sins.				8-SOFT STRAW Fill your manger with soft straw through acts of sacrifice: bear cold without complaint or take less at meals. -Mary, use these sacrifices to prepare my heart for Jesus.
9-SWADDLING CLOTHES Prepare these for Baby Jesus by folding your hands when you pray slowly & thoughtfully. - Jesus, let me love you more.				10-BLANKETS Provide the manger with soft warm blankets. Avoid harsh words; be kind and gentle. - Jesus, help me be meek and humble like You.
11-FUEL Bring fuel to the crib of Jesus. Give up your own will; obey your superiors cheerfully. - Jesus, let me do Your will in all things.				12-WATER Practice humility to bring fresh water to the crib. Honor the silence of Mary by not speaking of yourself. - Mary, help me to learn humility.
13-PROVISIONS Bring a supply of food to the crib. Deprive yourself of some candy or treats. - Sweet Jesus, be my nourishment & strength.	14-LIGHT See that the crib has sufficient light. Be neat and orderly today; keep everything in its place. - Jesus, be the life and light of my soul.	15-FIRE Warm the crib of your heart with a cozy fire. Be grateful to God for sending His Son. - Jesus, keep me close to Your Sacred Heart.	16-THE OX Lead the ox to the crib. Obey cheerfully without excuses and without asking "why." - I will obey for love of You, Jesus.	17-THE DONKEY Bring the donkey to the crib. Use your strength to serve others. - Jesus, accept my service of love; I offer it for those who do not love You.	18-GIFTS Gather some gifts for Baby Jesus and His Mother. Give to the poor and say a decade of the rosary. - Jesus, accept my gifts and possess my heart.
19-LAMBS Bring some little lambs to your crib, meek and patient. Do not complain today. - Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like Yours	20-SHEPHERDS Invite the shepherds to honor our newborn King. Imitate their watchfulness: look for the one who needs your help. - Jesus, teach me to love You above all things.	21-THE KEY Provide the stable with a key to keep out thieves. Exclude from your heart every rash judgement & careless remark. - Dear Jesus, close my heart to all that hurts You.	22-ANGELS Invite the angels to adore God with you. Obey the inspirations of your Guardian Angel. - Holy Guardian Angel, never let me forget you are with me.	23-ST. JOSEPH Go door to door with St. Joseph. Learn from him to silently bear disappointments. - St. Joseph, help me prepare for a worthy Christmas Communion.	24-BLESSED VIRGIN Lead your Blessed Mother to the manger of your heart and ask her to lay Baby Jesus in it. At each hour of the day say, - Come, Lord Jesus!
