The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✦ Part 34: Collection and Procession ✦

It's time to pass the basket for the Offertory. For many people, the word offertory might make us think simply of the money offerings we place in the collection basket. While that certainly is part of the typical Sunday offertory, this is also an important spiritual moment for uniting ourselves to the offering on the altar.

The Collection in the Early Church

The practical details of this part of the Mass have looked different at various points in history. In earlier times, the gifts would typically be things that people brought from their homes. People would bring all sorts of food, along with bread and wine, and gifts for the poor (money or otherwise). These gifts would all be brought up and then sorted. The bread and wine were used for the Mass, some food and money were given to the priest to provide for him, and the remainder of the food and money were divided up and given to the poor. So, one can see that even in the earliest times, this part of the Mass was about offering and giving. In our modern day, to simplify the offertory, the ushers collect money. This money still symbolizes our gift: what we give to God for the Mass (bread, wine, candles, etc., are purchased for the Mass), what we give to provide for the needs of the priest and the upkeep of the church, and what we give to provide for the needs of the poor and those less fortunate. As the ushers prepare to collect the offerings, we can take a look at our lives, all that we have, all that the Lord has provided for us. We can show our gratitude and thank the Lord by offering a portion of what we have back to him for the good of the Church and others.

Along with the collection, the bread and wine (and water in some places) are brought forward, just as in the days of the early Church. Around the year 150 A.D., St. Justin Martyr describes this part of the Mass by saying simply: “bread, water, and wine are brought” (Understanding the Mass, p. 109). The gifts are brought forward by members of the faithful. Whether it is the ushers, family members who requested the Mass intention, or other parishioners, whoever brings the gifts forward represents the whole congregation, bringing forth our offerings to God.

An Offering of Spiritual Gifts

As we think about our practical or material gifts during this part of the Mass, we should not overlook the opportunity to also offer spiritual gifts. Mother Teresa of Calcutta was known for asking priests to leave room on the paten for her intentions. One priest also recalled her saying that she would place her heart on the paten so that it would be near Jesus in the Mass. If we think about this part of the Mass, offering the gifts we have in thanksgiving to God and in union with Jesus, it is true that one of the best offerings we can make is ourselves! Along these lines, Charles Belmonte teaches, “Together with Christ, we offer everything that we are and all that we possess, all that we have done or try to do. We offer our memory, intelligence, and will; our family, profession, hobbies, success, sufferings, failures, and worries; and our aspirations, [joys and hopes], and spiritual communions. Likewise, we offer our small and big mortifications: all those acts of love we performed yesterday and as many as we plan to perform today” (Understanding the Mass, p. 110).

If you haven't thought about the offertory in this way before, I encourage you to think about including your personal spiritual offering along with whatever you drop in the basket. It certainly is a great way to join to the prayers the priest offers at the altar spiritually and a great way to deepen our unity with the perfect offering of Jesus!

For Reflection:

1. Respond to Father Luke's invitation by considering what spiritual offering(s) you will offer at the next Mass in which you participate.
2. At least once a year, take time to reflect on the portion of your material or financial wealth you give during the Offertory. Compare this offering to various expenses in your life. Ask Jesus to help you identify what you can generously give. In addition to your financial offering, consider how Jesus may be inviting you to give of yourself to parish life in other ways.
3. Have you ever been privileged to represent the congregation by bringing forward the gifts during the offertory procession? Thank God for that experience. If not, pray about the opportunity to do so and inquire at your parish about how you can participate in the offertory procession.

FEASTING

Celebrate the feasting and fasting of our Catholic Faith with your family all year long!

2/2 Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, Candlemas

There is always a food associated with feast days - for Candlemas, it's crepes!

2/3 St. Blaise

Have your throat blessed on Sunday 2/4 after Mass.

2/8 St. Josephine Bakhita

Learn the beautiful story of St. Josephine and pray for victims of slavery with your family.

2/11 Our Lady of Lourdes

Stay around after the 11am Mass to learn about Our Lady of Lourdes and enjoy a candlelight procession around the Church. For dinner, try a French inspired meal prepared as a family.

2/14 Ash Wednesday

Go to Mass and fast today. Talk about your lenten sacrifices. Have children help prepare a prayer space in your home with a purple cloth, crucifix, and prayer cards.

2/2 the Presentation of the Lord

Celebrate the day Mary and Joseph brought baby Jesus to the Temple, 40 days from His birth. This is also the day when candles are blessed by the Church and then used for the rest of the year. Why candles? Because Jesus is the Light of the World!

The Scene of Christ in the Temple - Fra Bartolomeo

Consider adding candles to your dinner table tonight, pray a family Rosary by candlelight (the Presentation in the Temple is one of the Joyful Mysteries), or read the story of the Presentation in the Gospel of Luke 2:22-38. We've also created a Candlemas playlist for you to enjoy - scan the Spotify QR code to listen>>.

2/3 Saint Blaise

Saint Blaise was a physician, bishop, and finally a martyr in Armenia. One of the more familiar legends involves Saint Blaise healing a boy with a fish bone stuck in his throat. Another story tells of a kind woman who brought him candles to dispel the darkness of the prison cell where he was held after being arrested. Celebrate the feast of Saint Blaise, the patron Saint of throat illnesses with your family on Sunday, February 4 after the Masses when St. Catharine will invite parishioners to receive the blessings of throats.

LET'S SHARE THE WARMTH BLANKET AND CLOTHING DRIVE

Our homeless and marginally homed neighbors are in great need. We can help Holy Family Soup Kitchen and St. John's Community Kitchen be the hands of Christ during this difficult season.

Blankets are needed for many.

For clothing what is needed most right now is for men: Coats, hats, gloves, sweatshirts/hoodies, underwear, socks, athletic and boot type shoes.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28

Donations can be brought to the parish center gallery area where there will be donation tables.

Thank you for helping our parish Care on Call and St. Vincent de Paul Ministries!
